

Special Meetings and Campaigns scheduled for our churches:

At Barker's Point, N. B., Sunday, Feb. 15th., at 3.00 p.m., the lovely sanctuary and church building just completed will be dedicated to the Lord. The pastor, Rev. N. E. Trafton, will be assisted in the service by a number of ministers, and the Alliance Superintendent, Rev. F. A. Dunlop, will preach the dedicatory sermon. Rev. H. R. Ingersoll will be guest speaker in the evening service of the day of dedication.

At Bethany Bible College, Yarmouth, N. S., Feb. 18-March 1, Special Services with Rev. G. R. Symonds as speaker.

At Amherst, N. S., March 15-29, an Evangelistic Campaign, with Rev. F. A. Watson as guest speaker, and Herbert McCrea as song leader and soloist. Pastor is Rev. Milton Bagley.

At Woodstock, N. B., March 18-29, an Evangelistic-Missionary Campaign, with Rev. Bill Morgan as speaker, Rev. L. K. Mullen, pastor.

At Marysville, N. B., March 22-April 12, an Evangelistic Campaign, with Rev. L. H. Hicks, speaker, Song Evangelist Paul Mullen, song leader and soloist, Rev. G. R. Symonds, pastor.

Prayer is requested for all these special events.

DEATHS

Rev. Mary Ella Slipp, 79, of Fort Fairfield, Maine, a retired Reformed Baptist ordained minister, Jan. 30th, at the Fort Fairfield Community Hospital. She was born in Hampstead, N. B., May 18, 1879, a daughter of Israel and Phoebe Palmer Slipp, but had lived in Fort Fairfield most of her life.

Surviving are two nephews, Harold Slipp, of Fort Fairfield, and Wayne Slipp of Deep River, Conn., and a niece, Mrs. Donald Dickerson, of Chatham, N. J. Charles E. Merritt of Fort Fairfield is a cousin. Three sisters pre-deceased her.

The funeral was held at the Fort Fairfield Reformed Baptist Church Sunday, February 1st, the pastor, Rev. Leslie H. Hicks, officiating, assisted by Revs. S. H. O. McGeorge, and J. A. Owens.

The pallbearers were Cecil Emery, Burrel, Franklin and Dale Kimball, Otis Ames and Leonard Hutchins. Honorary bearers were Reformed Baptist ministers: Revs. L. K. Mullen, F. A. Anderson, H. C. Ricker, and S. E. Cameron.

Rev. and Mrs. Lee C. Good of Monticello were among those from out of town attending the funeral.

Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery, Fort Fairfield, in the Spring.

Miss Slipp held pastorates in Reformed Baptist Churches in Royalton and Gray's Mills, N. B., and Jonesport, Maine, also preached in Mapleton, Maine. She was a member of the Fort Fairfield Reformed Baptist Church, teacher of the Ladies' Bible Class in the Sunday School, and was a Superintendent of the Sunday School many years. The Bible was her standard and her devout Christian teachings and example will long be remembered not only in her own denomination but by neighbors, her townspeople, and a large circle of friends.

THE HILLS ARE STILL THERE - - - From Page 6

When the material is swept away from us, looking away beyond the temporal may we see the eternal. "The hills are still there." And thus our hearts are comforted.—
Herald of Light

DEATHS

Mrs. George Dunphy, of Marysville, N. B., passed away at her home Jan. 21st after a lingering illness. She was 76 years of age. Mrs. Dunphy was a woman of fine Christian character, and was highly respected by all who knew her. She was patient and cheerful during her illness and gave testimony of a bright assurance of salvation.

Immediate relatives of the deceased include, the husband, and one brother, Mr. Albert Clark, of Marysville.

The funeral service was held from the home Jan. 23rd., and was conducted by Rev. G. R. Symonds, assisted by Rev. B. C. Cochrane.

Mr. Alexander Burbury, of Presque Isle, Maine, died at the P. I. hospital Jan. 31st. He is survived by three sons, Rev. William, of Shelburne, N. S. 1 John, Newport, Maine; and Burton Thomaston, Maine; two daughters, Mrs. Bernice Davenport, of Hartland, Maine, and Mrs. Anita Shorey, of Newport, Maine; also two brothers, Harry, of Minto, N. B.; and William, of Birmingham, England.

The funeral service was held at Graves Funeral Parlor, Presque Isle, Feb. 2nd., conducted by Rev. H. O. McGeorge.

Mr. Ernest Dow Ryder, of Presque Isle, Maine, died at his home Jan. 31st., after a brief illness. He was 76 years of age.

He is survived by his widow; five sons, Elmer and Elwood, of Presque Isle; Arthur, of Rockville, Conn.; Richard, of Oxford, Mass.; three daughters, Mrs. Elzena Norsworthy, of Presque Isle; Mrs. Fannie Goding, of Mapleton, Maine; and Mrs. Maria Chandler, of Milford, Conn.; and one brother, Percy, of Eastport, Maine.

To all who mourn the loss of loved ones we extend sincere sympathy.

Mrs. Charles Mutch passed away at the residence of her son, Edward, on January 13, her 85th birthday. Up until very recently, Mrs. Mutch was in good health and took a keen interest in Church and community affairs. Her husband passed away 33 years ago.

Surviving are one son, Edward, Woodstock, and two daughters, Louise (Mrs. Leland Ross), Augusta, Maine, and Ardis (Mrs. George Furrow), Canterbury, N. B.

The funeral was held at the Woodstock Reformed Baptist Church and was conducted by the pastor, Rev. L. K. Mullen.

Mrs. L. T. Sabine, wife of the late Rev. L. T. Sabine, passed away January 18 at Cottage Hospital, North Haverhill, New Hampshire. She had been visiting at the home of her son, Rev. Ralph Sabine, Monroe, New Hampshire. Up until a week before her death, Mrs. Sabine had been in reasonably good health. She was 71 of age and had been a member of the Woodstock Church for over fifty years.

Surviving are three sons, John, Andover, N. B., Rev. Ralph, Monroe, New Hampshire, and Rev. Ronald, Whitefield, New Hampshire. There are 12 grandchildren, two nephews, and two nieces.

The funeral service was held at the Woodstock Reformed Baptist Church, Rev. L. K. Mullen officiating. Others taking part in the service were Revs. F. A. Dunlop, J. A. Owens, S. E. Cameron.

Pallbearers were Revs. B. C. Cochrane, N. J. Rice, H. O. McGeorge, N. E. Trafton, G. R. Symonds, L. H. Hicks.

Interment was in the New Woodstock Cemetery beside the grave of her late husband.

WEDDINGS

Brown-Lewin: At the Reformed Baptist Church, Presque Isle, Maine, Feb. 2nd., Marie Elaine Lewin, was united in marriage to Clyde Eugene Brown, by Rev. H. O. McGeorge.

The King's Highway