ABOUT DR. WILSON

Dr. O. G. Wilson, Editor of The Wesleyan Methodist, for many years has been closely associated with youth work. For fourteen years he served as professor of Bible and Theology on the faculty of Miltonvale Wesleyan College, Miltonvale, Kansas. Hundreds of young men and women, now serving God in many professions and on foreign fields, gladly acknowledge their indebtedness to Dr. Wilson as teacher, friend, and counselor through college days.

In 1943 Dr. Wilson was first elected to a general office in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, serving as editor of the Sunday School literature for four years. At the succeeding General Conference Dr. Wilson was elected to his present position as Editor of The Wesleyan Methodist, which office he has served with great distinction and with much grace.

For the past twelve years Dr. Wilson has been advisor to Wesleyan youth, lending his counsel and wisdom to many of their significant movements of advance. For eight years he edited the Wesleyan Youth magazine. He is frequently quoted in religious periodicals.

Dr. Wilson speaks in language youth can understand because he understands and loves youth. His pulpit ministry and personal grace bear abundant evidence of his gifts, fitting him for a ministry to youth.

Dr. Wilson has had a rich background of academic training, and was honored for his outstanding scholarship and general church service by a Doctor of Divinity degree from Houghton College. Two sons and two daughters are now in full time Christian service.

* Written by Rev. George E. Failing, Assistant Editor of Sunday School literature in the Wesleyan Methodist Church of America, at the request of the Y.P. President.

ATTENTION ALL PASTORS & Y. P. PRESIDENTS

All pastor or youth presidents will receive in the mail a supply of Prayer Reminder Folders on the Denominational Youth Rally. Please make sure that all young people, and older people too, receive a copy.

These individual prayer reminder folders should be placed in a conspicuous place in your home. They will continually be a reminder for you to pray each day for the Rally.

We need an unusual awakening and a great deal of unusual blessing from God during our Rally. It will only come as we Pray.

Merle Smith.
