

Ministers and Churches

From Bill and Elsie Morgan the following message has been received: "Arrived safe, Capetown, Dec. 30th." The Morgans would have about another week of boat travel up the east coast of Africa to Durban. By this time they should be at their destination, Louwsburg.

Word has been received of the death of Rev. S. C. Hilyard, of Grafton, New Hampshire, on Monday, Jan. 4th. Rev. S. W. Steeves, pastor of our church at Seal Cove, N. B., reports that special services are scheduled for Jan. 20-31, with Rev. R. T. Sellick as evangelist.

Also special services at Fredericton Jan. 24-Feb. 7 with Rev. Ernest Cooper, of London, Ontario, as evangelist. Song evangelist Paul Mullen will assist in this campaign over the last week-end.

IF I AM NOT SANCTIFIED

FOR ALL MEN

The call unto holiness is not selective, but is universal. When Jesus said, "Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word" (John 17:20). He opened the door unto all men who would believe and avail themselves of the provisions of divine grace. The message of St. Paul was the same: "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world" (Titus 2:11-12).

IN THIS LIFE

The Scriptures make clear also the will of God concerning the time element and the experience of holiness. "In this present world" is where God wants His people to be sanctified.

The normal outcry of the sincere seeker after God and holiness is aptly expressed in the words of Charles Wesley:

Oh, that in me the sacred fire
Might now begin to glow,
Burn up the dross of base desire
And make the mountains flow!

Oh, that it now from heav'n might fall
And all my sins consume!
Come, Holy Ghost, for Thee I call.
Spirit of Burning, come.
Refining Fire, go thro' my heart,
Illuminate my soul;
Scatter Thy life thro' ev'ry part
And sanctify the whole.
