BEULAH NOTES

"Beulah does things to you. It gets into your bloodstream". The significant comment of a welcome visitor, one of our ministers who has been labouring with another denomination for many years. With this sentiment an increasingly large number of people fervently agree!

From north, south, east and west, throngs of people came to enjoy the inspiring and enriching fellowship of Beulah Camp Meeting. From Newfoundland to Alberta, from Maine to Missouri, came a throng of people, drawn by the magnetism of Beulah Camp!

Among welcome visitors were Dr. D. I. Vanderpool, General Superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene; Dr. Willard Taylor, the president of Canadian Nazarene College; Rev. Bruce Taylor, the superintendent of the Maritime District of the Nazarene Church; Rev. J. S. A. Spearman, president of the Canada Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church; Rev. John Keith, of Toronto, Ontario, superintendent of the Ontario District of the Pilgrim Holiness Church; Dr. Edward Dow, son of the late Rev. H. S. Dow, his wife and family, of Trenton, Ontario; Rev. E. B. M. Wheelock, of the British and Foreign Bible Society, and many, many others too numerous to mention. At least a dozen denominations was represented during the Camp.

Five new cottages built since last year's Camp Meeting occupied this year, also a dozen trailers, and a number of tents. And all hotel and dormitory rooms reserved more than three months before the Camp was scheduled to open. Those who did not have reservations occupied rooms of some who cancelled, others in homes of our good friends of Brown's Flat community. More cottages to be constructed this year, if Jesus tarries.

A great team of workers at Beulah this year. Excellent preaching, wonderful music, soul-thrilling singing. A lovely Hammond Organ, installed by Neil MacCallum, of Moncton, representative of the Willis Co., and loaned to us without charge for the entire Camp Meeting period. Our grateful thanks to Neil!

The spacious Tabernacle was filled for the opening service of the Camp. And for practically every evening service during the ten day period. On the week-ends it would not begin to accommodate the crowds. Some estimated that on the last Sunday there were as many outside as within. Let us pray that the Lord will lay it on somebody's heart to provide means for the enlargement of the Beulah Tabernacle. An urgent need!

A wonderful Daily Vacation Bible School programme at Beulah again this year. It seems to enlarge and improve every year. Mrs. Ruth Black and her fine staff of workers rendered a fine service. More than 125 children enrolled. A fine D. V. B. S. programme enjoyed by a near capacity crowd. The Children's Tabernacle bulging already!

A thrilling Bible Quiz finals between teams from Perth and Truro! Truro won by a narrow ten point margin, the narrowest margin by which they could win under the point system ruling these contests. Both teams were worthy of the congratulations showered upon them. They were good winners and good losers! And they all won in gaining and retaining a thorough knowledge of the Gospel of John.

A fine service in the interests of Bethany Bible College, under the direction of the president, Rev. C. E. Stairs. Students past and present spoke briefly, but very effectively. People were made more conscious of the great ministry Bethany is performing.

"The best missionary day yet", a statement heard repeatedly. A fine Home Mission Rally in the morning with a pastor, a layman, and an out-going missionary, all products of Home Mission churches, gave brief messages which stirred interest in this vitally important branch of the work. Reports of the Home and Foreign Boards and the Women's Missionary Auxiliary highlighted the afternoon meeting, with interesting question and answer periods sandwiched between reports. The evening Foreign Mission Rally was climactic in attendance, spirit, and challenge. Tapes recorded the service and will carry it to South Africa and Rhodesia. Kenneth Kierstead and Miss Alice Sterritt delivered brief messages of greetings to native workers and Christians of our mission fields. Spontaneous blessing broke upon the meeting. Fine messages by Dr. and Mrs. Storer Emmett, followed by the dedication to the Lord of their little girl, Bethany Joy. And the closing scene! Before the altar stood the Emmett family, awaiting the prayer of consecration, and they were joined by scores of young people who came to declare obedience to God's call wherever He might desire to use them, at home or abroad. A fervent prayer by the Alliance Superintendent, Rev. H. R. Ingersoll, and the singing of "I'll Go Where You Want Me To Go" as hundreds turned toward the Tabernacle doors and the future. The thrill and challenge still lingers!

An impressive Memorial and Ordination Service Friday afternoon. Tribute was paid to the memory of Rev. C. S. "Uncle Sim." Hilyard, ordained as a minister of the Alliance 58 years ago, who went to be with the Lord during the last church year, by Rev. F. A. Dunlop, president of the Ministerial Association, who spoke briefly, and by
