

Ministers and Churches

Many of our pastors and people have expressed concern for our missionaries in strife-torn South Africa. We are happy to announce that so far as we know, none of them have suffered harm or hardship because of the race riots. Paul and Mary Sanders are within a few miles of Johannesburg, one of the trouble spots, and Charles and Myra Sanders, located at Eermelo, are also in the danger area, but the last word received was reassuring. In a recent air letter Brother Charles wrote: "So far as I know all the missionaries are still safe from harm". We are pleased to know that our missionaries are being remembered in special prayer at this time, and hope that all who are concerned will continue to pray for them.

According to late reports, some of our churches are still needing pastors for the next church year. It is a time when we should pray earnestly for one another.

Song Evangelist Paul Mullen is to be at Melrose, Mass., April 24-May 8, and at Toronto, Ontario, May 11-22. Both these appointments are with Nazarene churches.

Rev. R. T. Sellick, evangelist of the Nazarene Church, and well known to our people, has open dates in June, July, and August, and "would be glad to book some meetings in the Maritime area". Brother Sellick's home address is Oxford, Nova Scotia.

We have heard unofficially of men having accepted calls to new appointments for the next church year. We would be glad to hear from any men who can provide announcements of this kind that have not been published.

Churches are requested to send in Easter offering receipts for foreign missions as soon as possible so that a report on the day's giving may be made in the near future. The foreign missions treasurer is Rev. S. W. Cameron, Perth, N. B.

Rev. John F. McElhinney, Island Falls, Maine, is open for call for the coming church year.

The church at Londonderry will be holding Revival Services with Rev. Kenneth Jewett, April 19-May 1. We would appreciate the prayers of God's people.

Our Supt. Rev. F. A. Dunlop was present and was our guest speaker, his topic being, "Stirring up the Gift". This was a challenging talk, after which, questions were asked by the Brethren and some very enlightening answers were given by Bro. Dunlop.

We were entertained by the pastor and his wife at the parsonage. The wives of most of the Brethren were present also and assisted with the serving.

Bro. Webb was speaker of the Evangelistic service
