

— Editorials —

UNITED NATIONS DAY

October 24th will be celebrated as United Nations Day. On this anniversary, the world looks back over fifteen years of the activities of the United Nations. These have been difficult years, yet somewhat fruitful years for this great assembly which seeks for better social, economic and political relations throughout the world.

Many and trying have been the problems facing this world body. Today its task is greater than ever before. And, as we think of the responsibilities facing this world body, we are reminded of Paul's exhortation that, "Supplications, prayers, intercessions be made for all men; for kings, and for all that are in authority."

In view of world conditions, and the desire of God for us to pray for all who are in authority, we urge our young people to unite their hearts in praying for the United Nations and a world united in peace. God is our true source of peace. In looking to Him, let us pray for the day when all nations will be united in peace and in the fear of God.

THE BEAUTY OF HOLINESS

Holiness is a term which may have many and varied meanings, but true holiness is always associated with beauty.

This season of the year presents nature's beauty in a magnificent blending of the many colours of the trees into one pattern of grandeur. Likewise, the various characteristics of the holy life blend into a pattern whose beauty surpasses that of nature.

Can you picture anything more beautiful than the leaves of love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, faith, meekness and temperance blending together in the human life for the enjoyment of mankind? This is God's ideal for every human life. He created man to be holy. He made provision for our holiness. He commands us to be holy. It is the beauty of the characteristics of holiness in ones life which is reflected in our love, our joy, our long suffering and our meekness which influences the world for good.

This beauty of holiness should not only be visualized in our relationship with our fellowman, it must be seen in our worship of God. The psalmist said that we should, "worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness." But, its grandeur is enjoyed most as one recognizes God in His holiness and seeks to share His likeness with ones fellowman. This beauty in relation to God and man carries a fragrance which satisfies every seeking heart. Thus the true beauty of holiness is not seen from a distance. It is seen when one possesses it in his own heart and life.

* * *

Sanctified afflictions are spiritual promotions:—Dodd

A church member answered his pastor's admonition by saying that he was not in the habit of attending the theatre; he only went occasionally as a treat. The pastor answered, "Then the case is worse than I thought . . . A consistant Christian does not seek God-dishonouring amusements for a treat".:—Biblical Illustrator.

The King's Highway

Pray For

Sheila Graham

and Revival

THE Y. P. ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES A PROMOTIONAL CAMPAIGN TO:

1. Encourage a host of people to pray for the ministry of Miss Sheila Graham.
2. Encourage hundreds of Reformed Baptists to pray for a Spiritual Awakening in the Maritimes and Maine.

ASK YOUR PASTOR OR Y. P. PRESIDENT FOR PRAYER PLEDGE CARDS AND PRAYER REMINDER CARDS.

A CALL TO PRAYER FOR REVIVAL

A Holy Ghost revival is the greatest need of our day. Habakkuk the prophet cried out many centuries ago, "O Lord, revive thy work". Down through the ages this has been the prayer of God's people.

John Wesley said, "God works only in answer to prayer." This increases our responsibility, Although we sometimes feel we pray hard for a revival, the absence of it indicates our lack of prayer.

Here is your opportunity to assist in a campaign to promote revival. Before you read this article your pastor will have received a poster, prayer pledge cards and prayer reminder cards. Ask your pastor for these cards. Sign your pledge card and mail it to "Prayer for Revival", Box 277, Moncton, N. B. Place the prayer reminder card in a conspicuous place in your home, so that it will be a constant reminder to pray for Miss Sheila Graham and her ministry.

Miss Graham needs our prayers. God has seen fit to use her greatly. Let us pray that the Holy Spirit will use this promotional campaign to send a great revival to us through her ministry.

Five Hundred people are needed to pledge their prayer support. We urge you to sign your pledge card and become a prayer warrior for Christ.

A Prayer Bulletin For Revival will be mailed monthly to all who sign pledge cards.

We believe a Holy Ghost revival is possible through believing prayer for our youth evangelist, Miss Sheila Graham. By our united efforts, God will give us a spiritual awakening in our area.

Merle E. Smith.

* * *

Be not discouraged if your talents number four rather than five, or one rather than two. Not the number but the use of talents fills the world with blessings:—G. H. Whitney.