

Ministers and Churches

An impressive farewell service for Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Emmett, and their daughter, Bethany Joy, was held at Saint John, N. B., Oct. 11th. Eight of our ministers and a good representation of lay people from Millville, Marysville, Fredericton, Black's Harbour, Sussex, Seal Cove, Yarmouth, and Saint John attended. The Emmetts sail from Saint John on or about Oct. 18th. May Divine blessing be upon this family as they journey to Africa and take up their work there!

Rev. R. G. Morehouse and Song Evangelist Cedric Landers are co-workers in an evangelistic campaign at Norton, N. B. with Rev. Stafford Hutchinson and our church of that community.

Rev. S. E. Cameron and our church at Perth, N. B., engage in a revival campaign Oct. 25-No. 6, with Rev. N. E. Trafton and Song Evangelist Paul Mullen as special workers.

DEATHS

The following obituary appeared in a recent United Nations publication:

The many friends of Wendall D. Watson (Elder son of Mrs. Viva Watson, Woodstock, N. B.) were saddened to learn of his sudden death on 19 August.

Mr. Watson, who was fifty-five, joined the United Nations in March 1950 and has served continuously in the Office of the Controller.

In 1952 he was assigned to the Pay and Allowances Unit; two years later, he became Chief of that Unit.

He served as Finance Officer with the mission in Palestine in 1952 and was assigned to UNEF in 1958. He also served a term as President of the UN Federal Credit Union. Our sympathy in their great loss goes to his wife, Margaret, his mother, daughter and all members of the family.

The funeral service of Allen Cook, age 36 was conducted in the United Baptist Church, Black's Harbor, October 2nd. Mr. Cook passed away in the hospital in Saint John, following several months of failing health. He is survived by his wife and four children — Lance, Jeffery, Wanda and Orinda — seven sisters and four brothers besides many other relatives and friends. Rev. M. Nesbitt was in charge of the service and Rev. A. D. Cann preached the funeral sermon. To the many relatives and friends we extend our heartfelt Christian sympathy.

Brian C. Arbeau, eight months old baby boy, passed away at St. John General Hospital. Surviving besides his parents are three brothers, Gary, in Nova Scotia, and Rodger and Donnie at home, and four sisters, Mrs. Russell Harris, Fredericton, Mrs. Frank Ellis, Truro and Donna and Gale at home.

Funeral services were held with prayers at the home, followed by service at the Reformed Baptist Church, Rev. Oland Kent officiating.
