

HIS COMING AND OUR GOING

you have to take, but rather a return; for while the Saviour will catch us up and away to meet Him, it will be that in His own good time and pleasure He may bring us with Him when He comes to reign, on that day when every eye shall see Him, every knee bend before Him, and every soul acknowledge His sovereignty.

(5) And blessed be God, "so shall we ever be with the Lord."

In that remarkable sentence Paul includes all that the Bible means when it speaks of the marriage supper of the Lamb, the millennial reign, final judgment, and the consummation of all things. Then shall dawn the new heavens and new earth and the wonderful provisions of the eternity to come; then shall Christ be All and in All.

The assurance of our Lord's near return should spur us on in holy living and diligent service, bring us closer to Him, and inflame us with holy love and compassion.

"Wherefore comfort one another with these words."

LIVING TO HIS GLORY

We are dearer to God than all the worlds He has ever made; more precious than all His other creation. Let this incomparable truth stir within your heart a passionate desire that He may be glorified in you more fully each day until that great day dawns for which both He and we look with such fervent expectation and hope.

BEULAH-ON-THE-ST. JOHN

by Alice Sterritt

Beautiful Beulah,
The Saints dear retreat,
Where we can worship,
In fellowship sweet.

Beautiful Beulah,
The place of God's choice,
Where nature's beauty,
Makes all hearts rejoice.

Place of refreshing,
Where God draws so near,
Sifting heart burdens,
With blessing and cheer

Through God's preached Word
And songs of the soul,
And we hear with delight,
The sweet music roll.

Beautiful Beulah,
My heart sings it praise,
To our dear Savior,
For Camp-meeting days.

RECIPE FOR REVIVAL

If all the sleeping folks will wake up
If all the lukewarm folks will fire up
If all the dishonest folks will confess up
If all the disgruntled folks will sweeten up
If all the discouraged folks will cheer up
If all the depressed folks will look up
And all the estranged folks will make up
If all the gossipers will shut up
If all the true soldiers will stand up

Then we can have a revival.

"Look to yourselves" (2 John 8).

GOD'S RULE — ALL FOR ALL

Remember God's rule, all for all. Give Him all. He will give you all. Consecration avails nothing unless it means presenting yourself as a living sacrifice to do nothing but the will of God. The vow of entire obedience is the entrance fee for him who would be enrolled by no assistant teacher, but by Christ Himself, in the school of obedience.

Let us learn to recognise Him in hard places, to see Him in little things. Let us be willing to take the answer to our prayers and the fulfilment of our life-purpose in most commonplace things. Thus everything will become sacred.
