VACATIONING

A vacation is one of the deserved glories of youth. It is a time when one seeks to enjoy life apart from the normal routine of daily duties. A vacation offers one special privileges to enjoy life in a somewhat relaxed condition. Indeed, the tendency for many people is to relax so much that they become lax concerning the fundamental demands of life.

The summer vacation will call for determination of mind and spirit if we are to grow spiritually. When we get away from home, acquaintances and familiar surroundings, we tend to become lax concerning the things which are spiritual. With this in mind, let us remember the need for strong determination to be true to God.

When we are visiting a friend in a strange town or village, let us find a place of Christian fellowship. Attend church on Sunday, and become familiar with those things which strengthen our relationship with God.

The best vacation is one which permits a person to return to his regular duties refreshed not only in mind and body but also in spirit. To spend a vacation and neglect that part of man by which we regard God is to choose a course which leaves the soul undernourished. It leaves the soul craving for satisfaction.

Let us not travel alone on our vacation. Let us invite the presence of God to be with us; carry our Bibles for guidance in the way; talk frequently with our Saviour; witness for Christ; and have fellowship with our Christian friends.

THE WORLD'S BIBLE

Christ has no hands but our hands
To do His work today;
He has no feet but our feet
To lead men in His way;
He has no tongues but our tongues
To tell men how He died;
He has no help but our help
To bring them to His side.

We are the only Bible
The careless world will read;
We are the sinner's gospel,
We are the sinner's creed;
We are the Lord's last message,
Given in deed and word;
What if the type be crooked?
What if the print be blurred?

What if our hands are busy
With other work than His?
What if our feet are walking
Where sin's allurements is?
What if our tongues were speaking
Of things His lips would spurn?
How can we hope to help Him
And hasten His return?

"HOLINESS ECHOES"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Pioneer Holiness Echoes was an interdenominational monthly dedicated to the "re-telling, in the language of the Holiness fathers, the message of full salvation. We regret that this valuable monthly is no longer published. However, through the kindness of publishers, we have obtained permission to use quotes from back issues. We are sure that our Young People will benefit from reading these brief statements from great men who helped to lay the foundation of the holiness movement in North America and throughout the world.

WHAT IS INBRED SIN?

By Geo. D. Watson

"Behold I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me" (Psal. 11:5).

Imbred sin is the secret, subtle life of self—it is so deep in the soul that it requires great searchings of light and truth to reveal it at all. We were shapen in depravity, so that it eludes the outward eye; we must search the bottom of our hearts with the candle of God to find it. Others may not see your depravity, but you can feel it within.

"The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?" —Jer. 17:9.

AN INSTANTANEOUS WORK

By M. W. Knapp

The double cure is a work wrought instantaneously and by faith. "The Lord whom ye seek shall suddenly come to His temple (Mal. 3 L o. "Suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a mighty rushing wind, . . . and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance" (Acts 2:2-4). "And while Peter spoke these words the Holy Ghost fell on all them that heard the word" (Acts 10: 44). And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as He did unto us; and put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith." (Acts 15:8-9).
