

Ministers and Churches

Men from whom we have received notice of being open for call to pastoral work include:

- Rev. J. A. Moses, 22 Harrison Street, Milltown, Maine.
- Rev. M. M. Grant, Box 233, Digby, Nova Scotia.
- Rev. D. C. Webb, Havelock, Nova Scotia.

Lic. George Hopkins, Bethany Bible College, Yarmouth, Nova Scotia. (Brother Hopkins is a native of Woodstock, N. B., and is a member of this year's graduating class of Bethany's Bible Department).

Two of the Bible Department students at Bethany are available for youth meetings, supply and evangelistic work during the summer months. They are Charles Grant, son of Rev. M. M. Grant, and Kenneth Foote, a member of our church at Seal Cove, N. B. Both these young men may be reached at Bethany Bible College, Yarmouth, N. S. Our Superintendent, Rev. F. A. Dunlop, has been holding special services at North East Point, a community on Sable Island, Nova Scotia.

Our churches at Woods Harbour and Sandford, Nova Scotia, have had evangelistic campaigns with Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Stabler as special workers.

Special services are now in progress at Barker's Point, N. B., with Rev. Clyde Collins and his son Wayne, of Halifax, N. S., as special workers.

Miss Vilis Hayes is now in Costa Rica, Central America, taking a six months language study course in preparation for missionary work in Colombia, South America. "Vi", as she is affectionately known to a large circle of friends in our Church, writes: "A strange country! A strange language! But the same wonderful Friend by my side—the Lord Jesus Christ—this is my experience these days".

Advance information on Beulah Camp—a strong evangelistic team has been engaged for this year: Rev. Carl Anderson, of Winona Lake, Indiana, General Evangelist of the Free Methodist Church, and the Mullen Brothers, DeVerne and Paul. So you won't want to miss this year's Camp!
