

Ministers and Churches

It will be helpful to all concerned if pastors who are accepting recalls and those who have settled plans to locate in new pastorates at the beginning of the 1960-61 church year will communicate such information to and through the Highway. This would be very helpful to churches having "call" meetings, and would eliminate the disappointment of voting on men who are already settled in their plans for the coming year.

A fruitful "Week of Evangelism" at our Fredericton, N. B., church, Feb. 26-March 5, with Rev. Neil Rice and Song Evangelist Paul Mullen as special worker. More on this campaign in the "Church News" column of the next Highway.

Wonderful reports of interest, blessing, and victory in the special services at Black's Harbour, N. B., where Miss Sheila Graham has been serving as evangelist. Word from the pastor, Rev. A. D. Cann of capacity congregations, many good victories, and the extension of the campaign over March 12th. This meeting will also be reported more fully later.

And the evangelistic campaign at Saint John, N. B., will be March 14-26. Sister Sheila is evangelist in this campaign also.

Rev. Neil Rice and Song Evangelist Paul Mullen have been co-workers in evangelistic services at Easton, Maine, in the Methodist Church, March 8-19. They will move from there to Fort Fairfield, Maine, for a campaign with Rev. L. H. Hicks and our church at the Fort, March 21-April 2.

Early reports indicate that there is keen interest in the denomination-wide Sunday School contest. The contest closes Easter Sunday.

And we hope that all churches have responded to the appeal for help in support of our Foreign Mission work and are planning for record offerings on Easter Sunday.

Open for call to pastoral work for the next church year are:

way; and the Lord hath laid on Him all my iniquities."

She was silent for a moment, and then exclaimed with deep emotion, "Oh, Mr. Moorhouse, is this true?"

"Dear child," he answered, "does not God say it?"

Again she was silent for a time, but at length looking up, no longer through the tears of sorrow, but in joy and adoring gratitude and inexpressible love, she said, "Then I am saved, for all my iniquities have been laid upon Him, and no stroke remains for me." She arose from her knees with the peace of God filling her heart and soul.

Many years have passed since that day, and that young woman, whose conversion to Christ came so suddenly, has lived a life peculiarly blessed of God and full of profit and blessing to every one she has known.

DEATHS

Mrs. Robt. Jamieson, formerly of Royalton, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Guy Melvin, in Hartland, on January thirty-first, at the age of seventy-seven. The funeral service was held at DeWitts funeral home, Feb. 2, and was conducted by Rev. J. A. Owens, assisted by Rev. Kenneth Gorveatte and Rev. Warner. She is survived by two sons and two daughters. Rev. J. A. MacKenzie is a nephew.

Interment took place in Woodstock.

Mrs. Welthy Brown, widow of the late Earl Brown, passed away at Carleton Mem. Hospital in Woodstock on Feb. 5, in her seventy-first year.

Her funeral was held from the late home in Lr. Brighton, to the R. B. Church, on Feb. 7, and was in charge of the pastor, Rev. J. A. Owens, assisted by Revs. J. A. and H. E. Anderson.

Sister Brown was a member of the Lr. Brighton R. B. Church, and had been a follower of her Lord since early in life. She leaves to mourn two sons, three daughters, and one sister.

Interment was made in the Rural Cemetery.

It is a great truth, wonderful as it is undeniable, that all happiness—temporal, spiritual, and eternal—consists in one thing; namely, in resigning ourselves to God, and in leaving ourselves with Him, to do with us and in us just as He pleases.
