

All our pastors were present at Beulah for all or a part of the Camp Meeting. Four new ministers were added to the Ministerial Association this year as a result of the Alliance action approving their ordination. The Jones' Cotage room that has served as a meeting place for the Association during Beulah was overcrowded this year. Thank God for the growth of our Church indicated by the congested conditions evident at the time of our annual meetings!

Rev. H. R. Ingersoll will be evangelist at the Inter-denominational Camp Meeting at Ithiel Falls, Vermont, August 9-20.

Rev. N. E. Trafton will be evangelist at the Clarksburg, Ontario, Nazarene Camp Meeting August 11-20.

Rev. E. W. Tokley is scheduled to be the special speaker at the Riverside Camp Missionary Rally August 16.

Rev. Neil Rice has accepted a call to our new church on Deer Island, N. B., and has taken up his pastoral work there. Brother and Sister Rice request the prayers of our people as they assume their responsibilities in this new area.

Rev. C. E. Stairs is supplying for Rev. E. W. Tokley during the month of August.

Rev. H. C. Mullen is caretaker at Beulah Camp Grounds this summer and will have charge of the services during the month of August.

The Home Mission Board is developing plans for extension work this summer. Please pray for the men who have this responsibility that they may be guided to the places where the Lord would have them go.

Let us keep blessed during the summer that we may prepare ourselves in vacation time for more zealous labours in the months ahead!

THE BEULAH ROOMS COMMITTEE

Expresses appreciation to the following Women's Missionary Auxiliaries which donated quilts for Beulah Camp: Two from North Head and Perth; one from Hartland, Millville, Moncton, Norton, Saint John, and Truro. Our sincere thanks!

COMMANDMENTS FOR THE PREACHER'S WIFE

It was written in the stars that, sooner or later, somebody would put down a decalogue for the elect lady who presides over the preacher's home. Most queens of the parsonage have such rules written on the tablets of their hearts, but there may be some value in printing this version:

1. Thou shalt have no other interests more important to thee than thy husband's.
2. Thou shalt not make unto thee any church clique or anything resembling it.
3. Thou shalt not take thy husband's name in vain.
4. Remember thy intimate family matters, to keep them secret.
5. Honor thy husband by keeping thy place, that his years of ministry in the cause of God may be long.
6. Thou shalt not gossip.
7. Thou shalt not be a burden on others.
8. Thou shalt not appear untidy.
9. Thou shalt not covet a taste beyond thy husband's income.
10. Thou shalt not covet thy lay sister's or fellow minister's house, furniture, car, or whatsoever thy sister may have.—Christian Advocate.

WEDDING

At the Reformed Baptist Parsonage, Houlton, Maine, July 3rd, Rev. D. C. Webb united in marriage, Bertha Mae Hannigan, and Max Harry Shaw.

"THOU FAITHFUL SOLDIERS OF THE CROSS"

A TRIBUTE TO REV. AND MRS H. S. MULLEN
BY LELAND WILCOX

'Thou faithful soldiers of the Cross,
To thee we say, "well done";
For all thy battles now are o'er,
Thy final victory won.
A crown of life is given thee
By the Redeemer King;
And in His presence, evermore
His praises thou shalt sing.

No more the clouds of earthly night
Shall overshadow thee:
For in that Land there'll be no night,
That blest home of the free.
And O, how wonderful twill be
Old friends again to meet,
And in the city pure and white,
To walk the golden street.

Thy ministry in Gospel song,
Shall long remembered be;
For many souls by this were brought
To find salvation free.
And when we reach that home on high,
The city of the King,
I'm sure that we shall meet again,
And hear the Mullens sing.

A few more days of toil and care,
Out in the heat and cold,
And for our Shepherd seek to bring
The lost ones to the fold.
And, at the closing of life's day
When all our work is done,
Then we will meet you over there,
Beyond life's setting sun.

*Read at Beulah Camp in service dedicating Public Address System installed as a memorial to the Mullens.

ALLIANCE ACTION

(Continued from Page 3)

the meetings of the Session with Christian grace, wisdom, and courtesy. The Secretary, Rev. L. K. Mullen discharged his duties faithfully and efficiently. Debate and discussions were carried on in an atmosphere becoming to a Christian assembly. In the closing meeting there were expressions of appreciations concerning the spirit that had prevailed throughout the Session. And in this atmosphere the Alliance adjourned, to meet again according to prescribed procedure, with all hearts united in a fervent prayer of thanksgiving. To God be the glory!

An infidel received a tract by mail. As a joke, he sent it to a friend in unbelief. This man was convicted and converted and in turn sent it to another who was likewise saved.

—Clipped.

"Every man must live with the man he makes of himself, and the better job he does in molding his character and improving his mind, the better company he will have."

—Clipped.

The King's Highway