

A CHANGE

Our Good Friday service was at a Native hut out in a big farm. This was a welcome change from the crowded native Townships. How different it is to minister to the few on the farms rather than to the hundreds in the Native Townships! However, whether to the multitudes or to the few, we preach "Christ Jesus and Him crucified."

This particular weekend of services were held at Sibanyane's kraal. He and a group of natives were "knocking at our door" and we were trying to lead them to the One who said "I am the Way".

Mr. Sibanyane had built a very makeshift lean-to in his hut and there we had the service. The load we took from Daveyton, ourselves and a goodly number of the above-mentioned people gathered for the service. A good service it was too. Paul brought a good message and the follow-up messages were also good.

We were in the place of honour behind a long table, spread with a nice white tablecloth. But before the service ended we faintly would have joined the women sitting on the ground. A regular whirl wind blew up and being under the eaves of the thatched hut we got the full benefit of all the dust, little stones, etc. Finally, leaving the plates of food almost untouched, we made a dash for the van.

1. Our heartfelt thanks to those who were in any way responsible for parcels of second-hand Christmas cards, needle books, and second-hand clothes, etc. Everything was appreciated both by us and the natives.

2. HOW TO MARK THE PARCELS: Be sure to put "Second-hand" or "used Christmas cards." On needle book parcels put a very small price, as low as ten cents (10c) Put a price on second-hand clothes, but keep it low. Remember, only one-third of the cost price is dutiable. When sending brown sugar, candy, etc. mark it confectionery, and again, keep the price down. Put the wholesale price. We have had to pay as much as 70c to get a package of needle books, or cards, not marked as stated above.

3. Our sympathy goes to all those who have lost loved ones. And our congratulations to those who have graduated from Bible School, or High School.

Paul and Mary Sanders.

RESPONSIBILITY

I have a clean, soft bed on which to sleep
 I have a table set with gracious things,
 How can I pray the Lord "my soul to keep",
 How can my heart lift up on joyous wings
 While there are those about me in the night
 Who toss on filthy rags and cannot rest,
 Who have no food, no raiment, and no light?
 How can I sleep unless I do my best
 To ease and comfort them, and how can I
 Be deemed a follower of the Christ until
 I heed humanity's unbroken cry
 And move to feed the hungry, heal the ill?
 God help me keep remembering—help me to see
 How great is my responsibility.
