

Rev. Ottis E. Smith, engaged evangelist for Riverside Camp Meeting, is described in a news release as "an effective and forceful preacher, as well as an excellent singer and musician". Evidently, Brother Smith, a minister of the Church of the Nazarene, is highly qualified for the Camp Meeting assignment.

Rev. and Mrs. Oland Kent, and family, are taking up residence in Liverpool, Nova Scotia, where Brother Kent will undertake the establishment of a new work. Special prayer is requested for this important undertaking.

The following ministers are taking up work in new communities as a result of pastoral changes:

Rev. J. A. Owens at Havelock, N. B., serving our Killams Mills and Salem churches.

Lic. Gary Lyons, at Hartland, N. B., serving also the churches at Lower Brighton and Victoria Corner.

Rev. Bernard Brown at Royalton, N. B., serving also the church at Bloomfield.

Rev. Kenneth Gorveatte at Crystal, Maine, serving also the church at Belvedere.

Rev. John McElhinney at Millville, N. B., serving also the church at Maple Ridge.

Rev. R. G. Morehouse at Sandford, N. S.

Rev. K. G. Jewett at Doaktown, N. B., serving also the church at Blissfield.

Rev. W. C. Burbury at Old Town, Maine.

Rev. R. T. Benson at Staceyville, Maine.

Rev. Gerald Inman at Shelburne, N. S. serving the churches at Ingomar and Sandy Point, N. S.

We pray that the abundant blessing of our God may attend the labours of these men as they take up work on new fields. And may it please the Lord to give all our pastors and people a wonderful year of blessing and fruittorian of the Bridegwater Classical Academy. a'elco We cannot see that gracious Form treading earth's dreary pathways and casting its shadow upon the sands of time. We love him whom we have not seen. We will follow him whom we cannot behold. We detect his leadings in many ways: in the drift of his example, and in the direction of his advice contained in the Gospels; in the counsel of a friend; in the message of a sermon; in the monition of a text flashed into our memory; in those inner promptings of his Spirit which . . . bear us we know not whither. Sometimes the way opens up before us marvelously where it had seemed closed.

This only would we insist upon: if you do not know which way to go, wait until you are sensible of the leadings of the Good Shepherd. Your life is wonderfully in-of his thought. DEPEND ON HIS LEADINGS eousness"-and what are these but right paths? You hesi- he rememberest that we are dust." Only do not judge tate at this. You say that you cannot feel that God's ways God's ways while they are in progress; wait until the plan with you have always been right. You are puzzled by their is complete. Wait until the tapestry is finished and you can mystery. You are almost driven to despair by their maze see the other side where the pattern will be worked out.

not to be marveled at, as you sob them out into the ear of Christ's leadings are always along "paths of right- God. And he is very pitiful, for "he knowest our frame; of difficulties and their stern demands. Such feelings are viewolau edit vonstance bas -Pilgrim Holiness Advocate.
