

Ministers and Churches

Rev. R. H. Nicholson was guest speaker at Doaktown on Sunday, Oct. 8, at a special Roll Call service and a service of dedication for the new parsonage that has been purchased by the church, under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. K. G. Jewett.

A notice from the Alliance Treasurer states that payments on Beulah and Riverside pledges are now due. A prompt response would be greatly appreciated. Please send your money: Rev. N. E. Trafton, 53 Corbett Avenue, Barker's Point, N. B.

Rev. A. L. Stairs, pastor, Monticello Community Church, will be assisted in special services by Rev. H. R. Ingersoll and Brother Cedric Landers, Nov. 14-26.

Rev. G. A. Hopkins, pastor, East Ferry-Digby Churches, reports a baptismal service on Sept. 17 when three candidates received the ordinance of baptism. Three have been saved recently at East Ferry.

Lic. Sheila Graham will be in special services at the Nazarene Church, Windham, Maine, Oct. 18-29. Miss Graham will be at East Ferry, N. S., Nov. 1-12.

The Woodstock Church will be engaged in special services, Nov. 3-12, with workers Rev. N. E. Trafton and Brother Cedric Landers. On Sunday, Oct. 15, Rev. L. K. Mullen baptized nine candidates. A special building fund offering, received on that day, amounted to $1,100.

Rev. Bruce Bridgeo, Halifax pastor, recovering satisfactorily from an attack of polyneuritis, is beginning to walk again without the aid of a cane. He has been able to attend a few church services but has not reassumed pastoral duties.

Rev. H. M. Kimball, who has taken up residence at Macwahoc, Maine, will be in special services at Fort Fairfield with Rev. L. H. Hicks, beginning Oct. 15 and running indefinitely. Brother Kimball will be available for evangelistic meetings at the first of the New Year.

The St. Croix District Meetings will be held at Calais, Maine, Oct. 19-22, with entertaining pastor, Rev. J. A. Moses.

Brother Wendall Shepherd, who this past summer was a graduate of God's Bible School, Cincinnati, Ohio, will assume pastoral leadership of the Meductic field as soon as immigration papers are completed.

Rev. B. M. Hicks, pastor of the Truro Church, is serving also as pastor at Londonderry for the current year.

The Moncton church has recently purchased a fine parsonage in the west end of the city, located at 54 Lake-wood Drive.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Bethany Bookroom opened on Saturday, October 7th, with a brief service of dedication. Located in a spacious store on Main Street, Yarmouth, the Bookroom will serve the town and area, as well as the denomination through mail orders. The stock includes Bibles, commentaries, devotional books, novels, every-day stationery, Christmas cards, long-play records, Sallman's paintings, children's books, games and novelties.

The correspondence course in Old Testament is now available to the public. All applicants have been notified to send in the ten dollar fee in order to receive their copies of the course. The fee may be paid in two amounts of five dollars, the second payment to be made in January.

The promises of God are certain, but they do not all mature in ninety days. —A. J. Gordon

DEATHS

The community of Barkers' Point was shocked at the sudden passing of Mary Alice Rickard, Saturday, September 2nd, in her 16th year as the result of a rare type of heart disease. She was active in the Sunday School and Young People's Society, serving as pianist in both organizations.

Mary Alice excelled in music and in academic studies, achieving high honors in both fields. The remains were brought to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rickard, the funeral being held on Tuesday, September 5th at the Reformed Baptist Church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. N. E. Trafton.

The floral tributes and the large number of Gideon Bibles given in her memory, indicated the love and esteem in which she was held by a host of relatives and friends. Besides the parents she leaves to mourn at home, one brother Robin, an aunt Mildred Jewett, and grandmother Alice Jewett.

To the sorrowing ones we extend our heart-felt sympathy, and await the glory of the resurrection morn.

Randy Brown age 5 son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brown of Presque Isle died Sept. 27th. Funeral Service was conducted by Rev. H. O. McGeorge in the chapel of Grave's Funeral Home, Presque Isle.

Our thoughts and prayers are with the bereaved.

Wayne O'Donnell, age 12 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel O'Donnell, Doaktown, N. B., met death in a tragic accident on Monday evening Oct. 2nd when he came in contact with hydro-electric wires.

Besides his parents and grand-parents, he leaves to mourn, a sister Marjorie and four brothers, Leonard, Samuel, Harold and Elwood. The funeral service was conducted in the Reformed Baptist Church by the pastor Rev. Kenneth G. Jewett assisted by Rev. Arthur Carpenter and Rev. George Bennett. Interment was made in the Church cemetery. We express our sincere sympathy to all who mourn the passing of a loved one at this time.

Funeral Services for the late Arch Horner, who passed away in the Digby Hospital on September 3rd were held in the East Ferry Reformed Baptist Church on September 5th.

The Service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Hopkins, assisted by Rev. L. J. Job of Tiddville and Rev. A. McLellan of Little River.

WEDDINGS

Whitlock-Billings: At the Millville Union Baptist Church, July 1, Roy Allen Whitlock and Norma Elizabeth Billings were united in marriage by Rev. J. A. Owens.

Barnes-Pinette: Dale Eugene Barnes and June Pinette, both of Presque Isle, Maine were united in marriage at the Presque Isle Reformed Baptist Church, Friday, Oct. 13, by Rev. H. O. McGeorge.

Drinkle-McKay: At the Reformed Baptist Church, Millville, N. B., Earl Norman Drinkle of Oshawa, Ontario, and Irene Jessie McKay, Caverhill, were united in marriage on Sept. 23 by Rev. J. F. McElhinney.

Jardine-Hayward: At the Reformed Baptist Church Moncton, N. B., Oct. 7, Mildred Joyce Hayward and Herbert Lynwood Jardine, both of Moncton, were united in marriage by Rev. E. W. Tokley.

BORN

To Mr. and Mrs. Allison Todd, Fort Fairfield, Maine, a son, Perrin Allison, on July 23, 1961.