THE MASTER'S CALL

Have you heard the Master's call?

Will you go, forsaking all?

Millions still in sin and shame

Ne'er have heard the Saviour's name.

Some may give and some may pray,

But for you He calls today—

Will you answer, "Here am I."

Or must Jesus pass you by?

Have you heard their bitter cry?

Can you bear to see them die,

Thousands who in darkest night

Never yet have seen the light?

Soon 'twill be too late to go

And your love for Jesus show;

Oh, then, quickly haste away—

Tarry not another day.

What if you refuse to go?

Someone then will never know

Of the Saviour kind and true,

And the blame will rest on you.

Will you then, forsaking all,

Gladly heed the Master's call,

Answer quickly, "Lord, send me

To the lands beyond the sea"?

"MEET THE BOARD"

by Rev. M. W. Bagley

The resignation of Rev. R. H. Nicholson as president of the Home Mission Board, at the recent Alliance Session, came as a great surprise to many.

Having been appointed to fill the office vacated by Mr. Nicholson, I wish to commend him for the immense contribution he has made to the extension of God's work, and our denomination during the past ten years. Under his direction the Home Mission Department of our church has become a well-organized and an offensive power against sin and the devil in the Maritimes and Maine. In many communities and cities Satan has been caused to retreat.

Thank God for such efficient leadership which has been rendered to our Church and our God through the unstinting service of Rev. R. H. Nicholson.

It is with a deep sense of unworthiness and inadequacy that I assume the responsibilities of this office. However I trust that the Lord will help me to render useful service to the Kingdom and to the Church.

Merely to maintain the well-organized program that has been promoted under the direction of Mr. Nicholson, one will need a great deal of help from God. And since the message of salvation and heart holiness is the only remedy for sin and modern evils, there must ever be an expanding ministry through Home Mission. Therefore, I humbly request your strong and faithful prayer support.

Another change came to the personnel of the Home Mission Board with the retirement of the treasurer, Rev. W. L. Fernley. For a number of years Mr. Fernley has worked faithfully and doubtless has been driven to prayer more than anyone else, for almost as regularly as there have been bills to pay, so also has there been a shortage of funds. Thank God for such faithful management of the funds by the devoted work of Rev. W. L. Fernley.

Rev. G. Inman was elected to fill the office of the treasurer. Mr. Inman is also assuming the pastorate of the Home Mission churches at Sandy Point and Ingomar, N. S. We are confident that Mr. Inman, who is both methodical and thorough, will do well the work which has been assigned to him.

Rev. J. A. Stevens, vice-president was re-elected to the Board, so also were Rev. B. M. Hicks, secretary and Rev. J. A. Moses assistant treasurer.

We, as a Board, desire the prayers of all of God's people in order that the Home Mission Department might truly expand the Kingdom by extending the message of full salvation.

THE MOVIES - - - From Page One

whether an industry that has been faced with economic chaos due to TV competition will easily give up what is morally reprehensible but financially successful. Not for a minute! Sex exploitation has been a number one drawing card since the inception of the theater; and so long as there is human sinfulness, it will remain the major attraction of the theater.

So you'd like to go to the movies! If you would, then reflect upon the kind of person you are, or will be, as you saturate yourself in the moral pollution that pours forth from the silver screen.
