IN REVIEW

We have just completed a period of review in our school work in preparation for Mid-Year examinations. This kind of review is always beneficial in any sphere of life. It is especially helpful to review our spiritual experiences. To do this, we must go back to the beginning. We must retrace our course in life. By doing this, we consolidate the truth. We pick up helpful ideas which we may have missed during our first or natural experience in life. Our past errors reveal our weakness. Our achievements may reveal our strength.

Whatever experience we may review, it is valuable only as we make application of our knowledge and experience in the tests of life. There have been tests during the past year. There will be tests in the year ahead of us. Therefore, a review of our experiences in 1961 may help us to face the tests of 1962.

It is comforting to know that we do not need to face the future alone. A review of the past will remind us that "hitherto hath the Lord helped us"; and enable us to enter the new year with an assurance that "The Lord will provide".

★ ★ ★ LETTER FROM SAINT JOHN

Dear Young People,

Greetings from Saint John! In September our young people's society resumed its duties for the year, with the following officers in charge:

President—Ernestine Cameron
Vice-President—Viola Rice
Secretary—Muriel Saunders
Treasurer—Curtis Ingersoll.

We are glad to report a growing interest in our services, God's blessing is upon us here. We gladly welcome those who have come from other Reformed Baptist churches throughout the province, that now attend our youth services.

Special features in our Young People's Services this quarter were musical programs presented by the Salvation Army band and the quartet from the Atlantic Bible Institute. A week-end of youth meetings was held November the eleventh and twelfth with Rev. C. E. Stairs as guest speaker. At least two found definite help during these services. On Saturday night a district rally was held with special music from our Moncton church.

We praise God for the blessings received and for what we believe he is going to do in the future.

In His Name,
Viola Rice, Assist. Sec.

SPECIAL YOUTH EDITION OF THE HIGHWAY

The February 28 issue of the Highway will be a special youth edition. We would like some news of individual young people and of youth societies for publication in this special issue. Would pastors, youth presidents, and others, please mail to the writer, by January 25, 1962, any news that you feel would be of interest to our readers.

Merle Smith

The executive of the Young People's Association extends to the readers of the Youth Page, Greetings of the Season and a prayer for a blessed New Year.

NEW YOUTH PROGRAMS

We are making available to all Y. P. Societies, a set of four programs entitled "The Way", which were prepared by Rev. L. K. Mullen. The programs explain the Way of Salvation, the Way of Holiness, the Way of Spiritual Growth, and the Way of Witnessing. Every program is well presented and geared to youth.

We are suggesting that each society use the programs during the month of February, 1962.

Five copies will be mailed to all pastors. Extra copies are available upon request.

A number of our pastors have felt the need of a series of programs on the doctrines of our church. These programs clearly present what we believe. They are based upon the scripture. Every society and church will profit from using them.
