

Brother Burbury, Old Town, Maine, reports some new converts following the District Quarterly Meeting held in September. Seven were baptized and eight were received into church membership. A number of others plan to be baptized before the New Year. We praise the Lord for victories in Old Town.

The Barker's Point meeting with the Nicholson-Mullen team witnessed record crowds and some definite spiritual victories. On several occasions extra chairs had to be brought in order to accommodate the crowds.

Rev. and Mrs. George Sanders, 66 Gair Drive, Toronto 14, Ontario, wish to be remembered to their many Highway friends and extend to them New Year greetings.

Brother John McElhinney reports a good meeting at Millville under the ministry of the Alliance Superintendent, Rev. H. R. Ingersoll. Among those at the altar were several new converts as well as others who sought to be sanctified.

Your Highway Editor was privileged to be one of four delegates from N. B. to attend the National Convention of the Canadian Temperance Federation, held in Ottawa, Dec. 3-5.

Just one guess why no news appears in this column from your church! Pastors, will you resolve in the New Year to keep us informed on events in your local Church? Please-help us out in this regard. If you write your news we shall be happy to print it.

CORRESPONDENCE

Thank you, Mr. Daniel Morrison, Caribou, Maine, for your $12. cheque, your own Highway renewal, the renewal of two others, and a new subscription. May God bless you! The Highway wishes that approximately 1000 others would do the same thing during the month of January.

We received recently a fine letter from Mr. Donald Tedlie, Minnedosa, Manitoba, who also renewed his own subscription and added a new one to our mailing list. Brother Tedlie is not in good health at the present time having suffered a slight stroke early in November. His testimony: "Jesus still saves and sanctifies." We are sure that Brother Tedlie would enjoy having a note from some of his friends of former days in Carleton Co., N. B.

THE SNARE

An Indian was found one day in the forest kneeling on the snow, arranging a little lane fenced in with branches and twigs. He constructed a little arch big enough for a rabbit to enter the lane. He was asked what he was doing. He answered that he was making a rabbit snare. The observer said, "Where is the snare?" He answered that he did not want to put in the snare yet. "Then what is the use of your present arrangements?" he was asked. The Indian said, "I first make the rabbits familiar with the run. I leave the lane open so they can pass through unharmed. They might come tonight and be very suspicious; but they will soon find there is no danger, and they will pass through and come out all right. After a while many rabbits will come by to nibble twigs, and then I put in my snare and catch them."

That is the way the enemy of souls lays his snares. Sin is made to look harmless. People are first made familiar in the environment of sin and may not suffer any apparent injury in the beginning. Then the great snare comes and the soul is caught.

I wish to pay tribute to one of God's choicest Saints, Mr. Frank Titus who passed away Sunday, Dec. 9th at Woodstock, New Brunswick.

Mr. Titus was one of the finest christian men I have ever met, with strong influence for good.

He was highly respected by all who knew him. Mr. Titus lived in Fredericton, N. B., until recent years, and was actively engaged in the work of the Salvation Army.

He leaves to mourn, his wife Ethel; three daughters, Mrs. Neil Rice of Deer Isle, N. B., Mrs. Douglas McPherson of Fredericton, N. B., Mrs. Harry Beddow of Woodstock, N. B.

His last words with me were, "I will soon be going home".

Our thoughts and prayers are with the bereaved.

Rev. H. O. McGeorge
