

Quarterly Meeting on Central Nova Scotia District convened at Westchester, Sept. 6-9. Two new pastors, Lic. Jack Dow and Lic. Charles Bain, were welcomed to the District. Brother Dow is pastor at Amherst and Brother Bain at Westchester. Encouraging reports were received from all Churches on the District. The next Quarterly will be at Halifax, Dec. 6-9.

The Marysville Church, under the leadership of Pastor G. R. Symonds, again held a number of Sunday Evening services out-of-doors during the Summer Months. People were able to hear the service by means of a loud-speaking system. The number of cars ranged from 20 to 50. Services consisted of singing, testimonies, and a Gospel message. The Church and pastor have found real inspiration and blessing in getting the Gospel out in this manner.

Rev. H. R. Ingersoll will be the evangelist at special services in Melrose, Mass., Oct. 14-25. Brother Ingersoll will be at Millville, N. B. for special services, Nov. 2-11.

A series of "Twelve Sunday Nights of Evangelism" began at the Woodstock Church on Sept. 9 to carry through Nov. 25. Special effort is being made to increase Sunday night attendance as well as to reach the unsaved. People are responding to the appeal and we are praying for spiritual victories, Rev. L. K. Mullen, Pastor.

Rev. Oland Kent, Liverpool, N. S. has requested prayer for special services which will be held Oct. 7-21. Rev. F. A. Watson will serve as evangelist.

WHERE WERE YOU?

Ponder the following which is taken from a church paper in Georgia:

"I am a Junior boy. Last Sunday night I thought I'd go to church. My buddy went to the movies and wanted me to go along, but I didn't think I ought to go there, so I went to church.

"I looked for my Sunday-school teacher, but he wasn't there.

"I looked for a couple of deacons I know, but they weren't there.

"I looked for my mother's Sunday-school teacher, who has called at our house, but she wasn't there.

"I guess they don't think church Sunday night is important."—Covenant Weekly

HAPPINESS

Happiness does not come by indulgence. You can get certain things that resemble happiness by indulgence, but not happiness. Christ laid down the road to happiness a long time ago in that sermon on the Mount, and it has never changed . . . Here He gives nine routes to happiness and they all converge in Jesus Christ . . . true happiness is not dependent on outward circumstances but rather on inward harmony.—F. Lincicome.

QUIET TIMES WITH GOD

I want to bear my testimony to the ineffable sweetness and sacredness of the early hours of communion with the Lord. How they detach the soul from the grip and pull of mere earthly things! How they maintain in the soul the supremacy of the spiritual, and how they enrich the secret springs of the soul's life; those quiet hours spent unhurriedly in the presence of our Father and our Lord!

Dr. Charles Inwood.

"The big rewards come to those who will travel the second, undemanding mile."
