

Ten Cents A Day

by Rev. K. E. Gorman

Ten cents a day in Africa will help some girl or boy
To hear about our Savior, and receive His hope and joy.
Ten cents a day in Africa will end some peoples' night,
And pay the way for them to learn of Jesus, Lord of Light.
Ten cents a day in Africa will clean and feed and care
For all the daily needs they have and all the clothes they wear.

Ten cents is all I have today; Tomorrow I'll have more,
I want to help the boys and girls on Africa's dark shore.

Missionary Work involves sacrifice. The Lord Himself was the greatest missionary and made the greatest sacrifice for human sin. The Apostle Paul, called of God, filled with the Holy Ghost, and commissioned by the Church blazed a trail throughout the then-known world. A great army of truly Christian Soldiers has carried the fight against the foe ever since, and eternity alone will reveal the cost to themselves and to those who supported them with prayer and finance.

Young People and Children ought to learn early in life the value of investing time, talents, and tithes in the Work of the Lord. The above poem expresses more truth than people in America can possibly realize.

Ten cents, only a small sum to our thinking, invested in God's Work CAN and DOES do all the following:

- a. Supports full-time Missionaries and Native Ministers.
- b. Maintains secular and Sunday Schools.
- c. Makes possible Daily Vacation Bible Schools and Youth Camps.
- d. Provides medical and other practical care for temporal needs.

African Governments are doing what they can to meet the tremendous physical and academic needs of this continent, but the Church has shown the way by not only ministering to the spiritual needs of young and old, but by establishing schools, clinics, orphanages, etc. The work of the Church is NOT YET FINISHED. Your faithful support is still vital.

A KEY TO VICTORY

Just do the next thing you know you should do, to carry out the will of the Lord. If there is sin in your life, quit it. Put away lying, gossiping, dishonesty, or whatever your sin may be. Forsake worldly pleasures, extravagance in spending, vanity in dress, in your car, in your home. Get right with any person you may have wronged. Forgive everyone who may have wronged you. Begin to use your money to help the poor and to advance the cause of Christ. Take up the cross and live sacrificially. Pray, give, attend the Lord's service. Witness for Christ, not only when it is convenient, but when you know you should. Look to no cost and fear no consequences. Study the New Testament to learn the will of God, and then do that will as you see it. Start now by doing the next thing, and then go on from there. —A. W. Tozer.

WHAT PRAYER WILL DO

When thou prayest, rather let thy heart be without words than thy words without heart. Prayer will make a man cease from sin, or sin will entice a man to cease from prayer. Pray often, for prayer is a shield to the soul, a sacrifice to God, and a scourge to Satan.
