"Let No Man Despise Thy Youth, But Be Thou An Example..."

EXTRACT FROM ANNUAL REPORT PORT MAITLAND, N. S.

We have had a very beneficial year in 1963. Our meetings have been Spirit filled with hardly a night in the last six months without seekers at the place of prayer.

We have had two new young people converted this year. They have proven to be a real asset to the cause of God.

I find our young people very eager to receive all that God has for them.

Once each month we have an open discussion on topics of questions our young people bring in. These discussions are helpful. At least two days a week I have young people calling at my home for spiritual guidance and help with problems. Some desperate enough to be saved, have called me at 11 o'clock at night, Praise God! He is still able!

Besides regular Friday night Youth meetings, we have prayer at 6:45 every Sunday evening before the evening service. We have also had complete charge of a couple of Sunday night services.

Our young people are all Christians and completely surrendered to the will of God.

Again He draws my gaze,
He seems to say to me:
"This, then is my kingdom, Child,
It spans from sea to sea.

"It takes in every tribe
And nation of the world.
Yea, over all the universe
Its banner is unfurled.

"For this I sacrifice,
I seem to suffer loss,
And yet I gain the victory now
By hanging on a cross."

"Then what about my cross
From which I vainly flee?"
"It only turns into a crown
When borne to Calvary."

GENERAL McARTHUR AND THE BIBLE

During the late war the Queensland Secretary of the Bible Society in Australia was granted an interview with General MacArthur. He writes:

I had to see him on Bible Society business. When our business was completed, we sat talking. I had brought with me a copy of the Society's popular report to present to the General, should the opportunity present itself. As I offered it, I said, "If you ever have any time that would resemble leisure time, Sir, you will find this book interesting." Said the General to me, "I always make leisure time for things that are good; and, believe me, Sir, never a night goes by, be I ever so tired, but I read the Word of God before I go to bed."

THESE THINGS SHALL PASS

The sky grows often dark with dread
And clouds obscure our view,
The drone of planes sounds overhead
And war seems nearer too;
But darkest clouds can't hide my Lord;
Bright hope obscures my pain,
For this I know, these things shall pass—
The sun will shine again.

Tomorrow may be darker still
Yet my heart shall not fear,
For He who feeds the sparrows
Has promised to be near.
And with Him for my Friend and Guide
I'll never walk alone,
For dark days, too, must pass away—
A brighter day will come.

Content am I within His care
For He will not forsake,
And step by step He'll lead me Home
If I His hand will take.
So through the pain my heart shall sing
Of brighter days to come,
For every pain will pass away
The day I make it Home.

QUOTES FROM "BILLY" SUNDAY

"Don't get Chesty over Success"

"It is not necessary to be in a big place to do big things".

"The man who votes for the saloon is pulling on the same rope with the devil, whether he knows it or not."

"There are some so-called Christian homes today with books on the shelves of the library that have no more business there than a rattler crawling about on the floor, or poison within the child's reach."

BE A MISSIONARY

Go, go, go; the Bible says to go
To every land, till every man and boy and girl shall know,
That Jesus died on Calvary's tree
To bring to all salvation free,
Oh, who will go? Oh, will you go?

Pray, pray, pray; the Bible says to pray
That reapers brave may harvest save, lest souls should die today;

That boys and girls who never heard
Be plainly told the blessed Word,
Oh, who will pray? Oh, will you pray?

Give, give, give; the Bible says to give
Your service true and money too, that boys and girls may live.

How much to give? with open hand,
For Jesus' sake give all you can.
Oh, who will give? Oh, will you give?
