

Two sections of the Riverside Tabernacle have fallen prey to the winter's heavy snowfall. Brother Arnold Stairs has sent word, asking for financial assistance from our Churches in order that the damage may be repaired as soon as possible. Brother Stairs has also expressed the hope that a new evangelist's cottage may be built this summer. Let all churches offer some assistance. Money may be sent to Rev. Arnold Stairs, Fort Fairfield, Maine.

Brother Ronald Madden sends an encouraging report of the St. Croix District Quarterly, held at Seal Cove, April 4-7. Good crowds were on hand at the services and several received spiritual help.

Rev. W. L. Fernley, Saint John pastor, attended the Park St. Church Missionary Conference, Boston, Mass., over the weekend of May 5. Brother Chester Cochrane, Marysville, N. B., supplied Brother Fernley's pulpit during his absence.

It's time to plan and to pray for our Summer Camps. May God give to each one a special outpouring of His Spirit. The summer schedule is as follows:

Alliance	July 3-5
Beulah Camp	July 5-14
Beulah Youth Camp	July 20-27
Riverside Youth Camp	July 26-Aug. 4
Beulah Junior Girls Camp	July 27-Aug. 3
Beulah Junior Boys Camp	Aug. 3-10
Riverside Camp	Aug. 9-18

Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Stabler will conduct special services at Victoria Corner, N. B. with Pastor Gary Lyons, May 7-19.

Rev. C. E. Stairs, Bethany President, has expressed the hope for a record turnout of pastors and laymen at the annual graduation exercises to be held this year, June 8-10. Special speaker is Rev. E. W. Tokley, Moncton N. B.

THE RESOURCES OF GOD

It has been truly said, "We do not test the resources of God until we undertake the impossible."

So much of our effort is held within the bounds of human possibility. We set our budgets at a point "we" can reach, generally without too much effort. We outline our goals within the limits of our ability. We hold our pledges to the level of what we are able to foresee.

And by so doing, we very politely but surely close the door to the help God is waiting to give. For God will not do for us what we can do for ourselves. Until we get out beyond the place where we are able to accomplish the task, we rule out the supernatural.

The world has a proverbial expression which is almost totally wrong—"God helps those who help themselves." Isn't it rather the case that God helps those who cannot help themselves? If "man's extremity is God's opportunity," then those who never get to the end of their own abilities give God no opportunity to show what He can do.

Prayer becomes effective only as it carries a note of desperation in it. That note does not enter until "the reach exceeds the grasp," until vision and faith ask for more than finite efforts can achieve.

This is no plea for reckless and ill-considered plunging, for presumption in the name of faith. It is, however, to express the concern that we more fully utilize the resources of God in the work of the church and in our own personal lives. It is by resolutely undertaking the impossible that we test the resources of God.

IMPOSSIBILITY

"Never tell a young person that something cannot be done. God may have been waiting for centuries for somebody ignorant enough of the impossible to do that thing."
