

A THANKSGIVING DAY TO REMEMBER

What better day could be found than Thanksgiving for the organization of a new church?

Even as we neared the town of Liverpool, N. S., we felt a sense of thanksgiving for the many beautiful scenes; the blaze of colour in the Autumn leaves, deer eating clover in a field, and then, to join with a Church full of people for the official organization service. One could readily sense, too, that our pastor there, Rev. Ole Kent and the eight charter members of this new holiness church were thankful to God for what he has already done in the town of Liverpool.

There was a sense of the presence of God throughout the entire service. And while the pastor extended the right hand of fellowship we began to realize that indeed miracles of Divine grace had been taking place. May God grant that this will be only a beginning of great things which he will be able to do for His glory through this another holiness church.

Redeeming the Time

Time is precious, but its full value is unknown to us. We shall attain this knowledge when we can no longer profit by it. Our friends require it of us as if it were nothing; and we give it to them in the same manner. It is often a burden to us. We know not what to do with it, and are embarrassed about it. But the day will come, when a quarter of an hour will be of more value and more desirable than all the riches of the universe. God, who is liberal and generous in all His other gifts, teaches us by the wise economy of His providence how circumspect we ought to be in the right management of our time; for He never gives us two moments together. He only gives us the second, as He takes away the first; He keeps the third in His own hand, leaving us in an absolute uncertainty as to whether it shall be ours or not. Time is given us that we may take care for eternity, and eternity will not be too long to regret the loss of our time if we have misspent it. —Author Unknown.

RE-DEDICATION OF THE SANDFORD REFORMED BAPTIST CHURCH

During the past few weeks extensive repairs and alterations have been carried out to the interior and exterior of the Sandford Reformed Baptist Church. These were made possible through the generous bequest of the late Willis George Durkee, Watertown, Mass., in memory of his mother, Mrs. Alice J. Harris who was a charter member of this church.

The interior of the church has been completely re-decorated with mahogany and birch paneling on the walls, tile ceiling and floor, new windows and the pews refinished in a lighter shade, which presents a very nice appearance.

On Sunday morning, Sept. 29th a rededication service was held with Rev. H. R. Ingersoll, Saint John, N. B., our Superintendent as guest speaker. Rev. Mr. Ingersoll used as his text, Exodus, Chapter 25, Verses 1-8 and brought a most inspiring and challenging message.

An inscribed stained-glass window has been placed in the church in memory of the late Mr. Durkee and his mother which adds much to the appearance. During this service furnishings in the form of a pulpit, given by Deacon Aaron Churchill, and three pulpit chairs placed in memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Landers, by the family, were dedicated to the Glory of God.

WE NEED A SAVIOR

Daniel Webster once said, "Such is my conviction of accountability to God, such is my sense of sinfulness before Him, and such is my knowledge of my incapacity to recover myself, that I feel I need a supernatural Savior."
