

FROM WOOD HARBOUR, N. S.

Dear Highway,

Greetings in Christ's Wonderful Name! The atmosphere in the Wood's Harbour Church has been, and is, heavenly. We have experienced one of the best spiritual awakenings in the history of the Church. The common cry of the Church has been, "I haven't seen anything like it before."

Rev. N. E. Trafton laboured with us for nearly three weeks and every night the Spirit was present with blessing on the Christian and conviction on the unsaved. Two highlights of the Revival occurred Thursday, Feb. 28 and Saturday, March 2. Thursday evening the service was charged with the Holy Spirit's presence from the very beginning of the meeting. The climax of the service was realized after Brother Trafton sang "I Dreamed I Searched Heaven For You", and then he asked the congregation to sing "Shall We Gather At The River". After singing the first verse he opened the altar and immediately one soul responded. We had a time of prayer at the altar. Following this victory we sang another hymn and a man arose from his seat and came to the altar for salvation. Then another seeker came. This all came about without any preaching by our Evangelist. God took over and it was His service.

Saturday night Revival continued in the Church and backsliders were reclaimed as well. The meetings ended with a wonderful spirit of continued revival. Several hands were raised for prayer on the final evening. We are expecting a rich harvest of souls following the Revival meeting. A great number are almost persuaded; pray with us that they will be fully persuaded to follow Christ.

We praise God for the privilege of serving such a wonderful people for the past four years and we are looking forward to the coming year as we labour together for God in Wood's Harbour.

In His Service,
Fred and Lilyan Whittey

PRACTICAL EVIDENCES

but a devout Christian and man of prayer.

We could find scientists, mathematicians, astronomers—men of great intellect who have found delight in Bible study and in walking with the Lord. On the other hand, it is true that little children, just beginning to read, find in the Bible and in Christianity that which suits their intellect, and gives them endless pleasure.

These things could not be said of any other book in the world, nor of any other system of religion. The Bible is not a book of science, but the man of science will find that which will interest him. The Bible is not a book of history, but the historian will find ample to engage his mind for many days. The Bible is not a book of literature, but where can the man of letters find such flights of oratory, such sublime figures of speech, such beautiful poetry and imagery?

When once a noted infidel, who himself was not a writer, wanted a book written against Christianity, he hired another unbeliever, who was a writer, to write for him. In order to write his book this man was compelled to study the life of Christ as revealed in the New Testament, with the result that he himself became converted to Christ and wrote the well known Christian book, "Ben Hur." I knew a little girl not yet six years old who would take her New Testament and read chapter after chapter with apparent enjoyment. Indeed, with facility, Christianity accommodates itself to every intellect.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE ELMSDALE, P.E.I.

Dear Highway Readers;

I want to share with you the delight and joy that has been ours, to see a real outpouring of the Spirit which resulted in about forty seekers at our altar. Among them were five married couples and two young men, brothers in the flesh, now brothers in the Lord. It's refreshing to hear these new converts tell of their new found joy. Sister Sheila Graham was at her best. The congregation kept building up as the meeting went on, until the last night (Tuesday, Feb. 19) every seat was filled and chairs and benches had to be brought in. The people here said they had never seen so many in the Church before. We appreciated Sister Graham's fine sermons backed up by much prayer and fasting.

A fine group of men and women backed the meeting with prevailing prayer.

Yours In Him,
Hartley E. Mullen.

QUARTERLY MEETINGS

The Quarterly Meetings of the Central Nova Scotia Reformed Baptist Churches met in Truro, March 7-10 inclusive.

The Business Session was held Saturday at 3 p.m. with Rev. B. M. Hicks in the chair.

Letters were read from the churches. Some reports were encouraging, especially those telling of young people being recently converted.

The change from four to two District Meetings a year was discussed. A vote was taken with the results being in favour of two meetings a year.

Plans were also made at this session to have a Sunday School Forum directed by the Denominational S. S. Promoter at the next session, which will be in Amherst from September 19-22 inclusive. At this meeting we will decide on the regular dates for the District Meetings.

District Secretary

We know what we ought to do with Jesus Christ. We ought to crown Him King in our lives, in our home, in all that we are and do. It is the place of supremacy that belongs to Him who loved us and gave himself for us.—Wm. T. McElroy.
