

Happy echoes are still being heard from the revival meetings in Black's Harbour with Rev. R. H. Nicholson and Brother Paul Mullen as special workers. New voices are in prayer meeting; attendance has increased in the regular services, a new extension on the church is being planned, and the pastor has had a salary increase. All taken together, that's a revival! Rev. A. D. Cann is giving enthusiastic leadership to the Black's Harbour Church. May God continue to bless this pastor and his people.

Rev. M. W. Bagley is leading his church at Barker's Point in a twelve week study in personal evangelism. The course is meeting with interest and enthusiasm.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. MacKenzie will assist Rev. Gerald Inman in special services at Sandy Point, N. S., April 17-28.

Rev. W. L. Fernley and the men of the Saint John Church carry on a prayer service each Saturday evening. That's a healthy idea for any church. Why not try it?

Miss Sheila Graham has been having revival services with Rev. J. A. Owens and the churches of Killam's Mills and Salem, March 17-April 7. Brother Owens has asked for prayer for the success of these meetings. Brother Owens also reports the greatly appreciated ministry of our Superintendent, Rev. H. R. Ingersoll, in a week of meetings with these churches, Feb. 5-10. Also, a successful missionary conference, Jan. 8-13, with special workers, Rev. Henri Lanctin, Lic. Kenneth Kierstead, and Rev. and Mrs. Eric Haywood.

Rev. H. R. Ingersoll will be at Beals, April 11-14, assisting the pastor, Rev. G. A. DeLong, in special Easter services.

Quarterly meetings were held on the Aroostook District at Presque Isle, Maine, March 28-31.

Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Stabler, well-known evangelists across our entire Church, will assist in revival services at the Presque Isle Church, April 11-21.

WHEN GOD TESTS YOU

"When God tests you, it is a good time for you to test Him by putting His promises to the proof, and claiming from Him just as much as your trials have rendered necessary."
