BEULAH CAMP

As you pick this paper up to read there are only two months before Beulah camp. This means that individual young people should be making plans now for that great event. Young people's societies should be taking stock to see what progress has been made during this Church year.

During a recent trip to Beulah Camp we found snow-covered fences, and the white blanket of snow on the ground have already shown signs of retreat. The atmosphere was peaceful and filled with promise. Soon the trees will break forth with their beautiful foliage and the singing of birds will blend their beauty to add to the serenity of the Camp Grounds.

God has given us a wonderful place of beauty for a camp meeting. But, more beautiful than the natural surroundings of the camp is the fellowship that young people enjoy. There is just nothing like it to give a young person a spiritual boost. Don't put off making your plans for Beulah Camp . . . "Do it now." If you can't see any way that you can possibly get there, pray about it . . . The Lord may make a way.

HEAVENLY FRAGRANCY

In the days when the Mosque of Omar was built over that spot of Moriah where the worshiper could touch a piece the unhewn original rock of the hill, it was customary to bring loads of incense and aromatic shrubs into the shrine, which was called Sakhara. As a consequence, if anyone from the city had been worshipping there, he carried away with him so much of the fragrance of the place that when people passed him in the market place of Jerusalem or in the streets they used to say to each other. "He has been in the Sakhara today".

Would to God we thus lived; coming forth daily with our garments smelling of the myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, from ivory palaces. With fresh holiness every dawn drawn from Christ. What a witness for Him we should be! How joyfully we should listen to the voice that is ever calling, "Be ye holy, for I am holy"; and He who speaks thus would hasten to give us more and more when we repair to Him.

TRIBUTE TO A MINISTER'S WIFE

Berniece Ayers Hall

This is the way her busy life is spent,
A consecrated, selfless ministry.
Instead of confidence exchanged
In friendship's name o'er cups of fragrant tea,
She pours her own deep spirit's wealth
Of understanding, and she longs to share
With every burdened heart the power she finds
Along the shining path of sincere prayer.
Like Him, the Master whom she serves,
She gives herself in sacred partnership
With God; and oftentimes lonely, her soul knows
The comfort of divine companionship.
Bless, Lord, across all lands, each of these
Beloved, true disciples on their knees.

PRAYERS FOR LITTLE CHILDREN

Occasionally we hear a young mother say, "I wish I had a nice little prayer to teach my child. "The thought came to us that perhaps there might be many young parents who would like several new prayers to teach their little boy or girl. Perhaps the following selection of prayers are what you have been looking for.

(1) Prayers for the Morning:

"Jesus Lord to Thee I pray,
Guide and guard me through this day;
Keep my feet from every snare,
Bless me with Thy watchful care." Amen

"Jesus help me through this day
In my work and in my play
Both to love and to obey." Amen

"Father we thank Thee for the night,
And for the pleasant morning light,
For rest and food and loving care,
And all that makes the world so fare." Amen

"Help us to do the things we should,
To be to others kind and good;
In all we do in work or play
To grow more loving every day." Amen

"Father keep me all day long
From all harmful things and wrong;
Make me Thy obedient child,
Make me loving, gentle, mild." Amen

(2) Prayers for the Evening:

"Now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray the Lord my soul to keep.
If I should die before I wake,
I pray the Lord my soul to take.
And, this I ask for Jesus sake." Amen

"Saviour, lay Thy hand on me,
Bless me, and remember me." Amen

Thank you Lord for Mom and Dad,
And all that makes my heart so glad.
Keep me safely through the night
That I might see the morning light.
Help me to sleep and restful be,
That I might wake to live for Thee. Amen

YOUTH CAMP WORKERS

If you are interested in being a Youth Camp Worker, counsellor etc., regardless of where the camp will be held, you should write to Mr. Douglas MacCallum, Marysville, N. B.

This system is being used as an aid in helping directors secure camp help. Your help in applying early would be of assistance to those responsible for planning our Youth Camps.
