

Rev. J. A. Owens, pastor of the Deer Island Church spent several days in the St. Stephen Hospital. Latest word indicates that he is better and home again.

Rev. R. H. Nicholson with Brother Paul Mullen conducted special services at Endicott, New York with Pastor Gerald MacKinnon. Of special interest is the good news that Brother Nicholson's voice held up wonderfully, gaining strength as the meeting progressed. To God be the glory.

Rev. Scott Ingersoll reports a successful meeting at Sussex with Rev. Sheila Graham as evangelist. A number were reclaimed, others sanctified, and several found Christ in saving grace. The church is encouraged to greater faith and vision for the future. Recently they celebrated their tenth anniversary by a series of week-end services when former Superintendents and Pastors brought the messages.

Lambertville, Deer Island. It is time we reported from this part of our work. We are enjoying ourselves here very much. We have found a group of sincere people who love the truth, and although few in number have done remarkably well in building such a beautiful church, providing a parsonage, and helping to promote denominational interests. Recently we enjoyed the ministry of Rev. Ingersoll and Rev. Nicholson. People from all over the Island attended the meetings, and are still talking about the wonderful messages in sermon, picture and song. Brother Glendon Kierstead was with us for a missionary service in October. We wish to thank the Salem-Killams Mills people again for the lovely gift of a dual-controlled electric blanket, a very generous purse of money, and other gifts received at our going away party. Also the Salem W.M.A. presented Mrs. Owens with an electric deep fryer. We wish them the very best under the leadership of their new pastor. We ask an interest in your prayers for the work in Deer Island.

In His Service,
J. A. & Mrs. Owens.

Dedication at Deer Island. Dedication service for Reformed Baptist Church was held Sunday, Sept. 27 at 2 p.m. The pastor, Rev. J. A. Owens, conducted the service and officiated in the act of dedication. Rev. Malcolm Stairs gave the invocation. Rev. Percy Green of Seal Cove read the scripture. Rev. H. R. Ingersoll brought the message and Rev. A. D. Cann of Black's Harbour prayed the dedication prayer.

Mrs. Ivan Edgett of Moncton was guest soloist. She sang "Bless This Church," with words she composed to the melody of "Bless This House". Mrs. J. A. Owens was pianist for the service. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. R. H. Nicholson. Special services continued throughout the week concluding October 4, with Rev. Ingersoll preaching each night. The meetings were well attended and great interest was shown in the work of artist Evangelist Rev. Nicholson as he portrayed Bible truth in painting. Rev. and Mrs. Owens rendered gospel numbers.

LETTER FROM REV. and MRS. WILLIAM BURBURY

Dear Highway Friends,

Greetings in the Lord from the Mid-West
We would like to report to you that we are in good hands out here. The tri-State

Area of which Cincinnati is a part, is very strong on Holiness. Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky have a reputation for producing lots of Holiness folk. They are old fashioned, believing strongly on proper dress, long hair, and no jewelry. They would put many of our R.B.'s to shame, I am afraid.

The School is often the scene of marvelous altar services with many shouts in the Camp.

We are enjoying our studies at God's Bible School and College. According to our present schedule we will graduate next spring and the following year respectively with the T.H.B. and B.A. We may go on and do graduate work or return home. As yet we are not sure but will depend on the leading of the Lord. We must confess too, a lonesomeness for you, our people and are anxious to renew acquaintances again.

It was not easy for us to leave the work at Old Town. There was so much left undone. Although I feel a measure of progress was made in many areas and too the folk were so good, yet my heart is heavy that more was not accomplished.

I have confidence that Brother Fernley and the church will see some greater strides ahead as the Lord tarries.

We do trust that our friends will hold us up in prayer, we will remember you as well. May the Lord richly bless all of our Pastors and people.

Yours in His Love,
Bill and Wilma Burbury

MISSIONS AT AMHERST

Just a brief report of the work here at Amherst, and some very special events in the past few months.

The work is much alive here, and shows good signs of becoming a strong work, a church with God's blessing.

Mr. and Mrs. Storer Emmett from Old Town, Maine came to us fired with a zeal for Missions, and challenged our people to the need in Africa, where millions were needing the gospel. They presented the work in such a way that our people immediately said to us let us rise up and build, let us do something, let us give. Our Sunday School has become Missionary Minded, with a missionary project, with weekly contributions.

Then another great service the next week with Rev. and Mrs. Paul Sanders who also challenged our people, and in this service we felt the presence of God's Spirit.

Then we had a week of Special Meetings with Rev. E. W. Tokley a man with God's message for these times. And may I add that every church ought to invite him. This man ought to be busy every week.

Paul Mullen our beloved gospel singer assisted us at this time, and we can say that they sure made a good team.

Three young ladies were baptized and received into church membership, Roberta McKay, Karen Hayes and Betty Sharpe.

Remember us when in prayer.
Rev. Hubert McGeorge.

Dear Highway Friends,

We are happy to report from the Norton pastorate and share the many evidences of God's blessing that we have experienced. We are facing the new year 'confident of this very thing, that He which hath begun a good work . . . shall perform it until the day of Jesus Christ'.

Although we have seen many difficult moments, and still are, God has wondrously supplied in the building of our new church. Now we are waiting with fervent expectation for December 6th to bring the dedication ceremonies of the new sanctuary. In addition, my elder brother Glendon, will be with us as evangelist for three Sundays of meetings during this sacred time, and we are all looking forward with faith that souls will be reached and revived for Christ.

We are still facing heavy financial obligation and covet your prayers in this regard. As a church, we would like to use this medium to express our gratitude to those who have been standing with us through our crises and have shown us the application of Christ's words . . . 'whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain'.

Sandra and I would also like to restate how much we cherish the privilege that is ours to serve in this wonderful work with people that we have grown to love and appreciate. Norton is now our 'home' in so many ways.

Kindest personal greetings to all our friends. Come and visit us!

BEULAH GIRLS' CAMP

Using as its theme "CHILDREN OF THE BIBLE", taught by Rev. Hazen Ricker, Camp Evangelist, Junior Girls' Youth Camp had 35 campers enrolled. What a joy to hear these girls testify! Never shall I forget the testimony of one of "my" girls after she had found the Lord while praying alone with her counselor just before retiring. Others of our campers registered decisions for Christ, and for this we say, "To God be the Glory."

What a joy and thrill to work with these girls was the sentiment of each of the Camp staff which included our cook, Mr. Thompson, Camp Mother, Mrs. Ricker, and counselors, Helen White, Beth Cann, Joan Gaunce, Margaret Cochrane, Mary Cann, Grace Cowper, and Mavis Roberts.

On Thursday evening the girls presented a program for parents and friends living on the Camp Grounds. This program included the presentation of Biblical Skits and much originality was displayed; the campers termed it "a lot of fun". Again on Friday evening a "Talent Night" was presented which provided laughter and a good time as campers and leaders took part. Following this program a huge campfire was lighted on the beach and Mr. Ricker led the group in a sing-song and a devotional message. The vibrant testimony of our cook will long be remembered, as he spoke from his heart that evening.

God gave us a gracious Camp and we know that his presence was with us in a wonderful way. Each camper went home, I am sure, to be a better girl from having studied God's Word with Rev. Ricker, played together under the direction of devoted counselors, worshipped together at Praise Service in early morning, vesper service in evening, chapel and bedtime devotions. One of the high points of each day was the regular family altar around the breakfast table with each girl kneeling while Rev. Ricker read from God's Word and some member of our Camp Family talked to God in prayer.

Those living on "Beulah Hilltop" will long remember voices of 35 Junior Girls as they sang the National Anthem and other songs while raising the flag each morning and again as they lowered it each evening.

As cars left on Saturday taking our precious junior girls away from camp, over and over again were heard the words, "I've had a wonderful time; I'll be back next year."

Only eternity will reveal what Girls' Camp 1964 meant to these girls. Our prayer is that God will keep each girl in His care as they mature into fine, Godly women.

Mrs. Ruth Black, Camp Director
