WHEN THE DEVIL DOES HIS WORST

Oh, it takes a lot of patience,
And a lot of earnest prayer,
As we travel on life's pathway
When we're tempted here and there
To depart from faith and duty,
Or for worldly things to thirst,
And to stay where God would have us
When the devil does his worst!

There are times when blows are heavy
As they come from Satan's ranks,
And when we resist him strongly
He will call us fools and cranks;
But in all that comes upon us,
If we put our Saviour first,
We can claim and shout the vict'ry
When the devil does his worst.

Do not think it strange, dear pilgrim,
When you try to do your best,
And you're weary, soul and body,
And you seek to find some rest,
If a bolt of hatred flashes
And the thunders round you burst,
For it's then the Lord will bless you
When the devil does his worst.
