

YOUTH WITH VISION

NEW PAPER

The King's Highway has been a cherished paper in holiness circles for many decades. This year the Alliance authorized changes in the paper which will be of interest to its readers.

The significant changes are evident in this issue. For our young people, the major change is the discontinuance of a full "Youth Page" which has been published by our young people for many years. The new arrangement will provide adequate space to meet our needs as a Young Peoples Association. We are anticipating continued service to our youth through this medium; and trust that God will continue to bless the service rendered through our Highway.

NOTICE

Please forward young People's material for publication to the young people's editor: Rev. W. E. Green, 39 Mountain Road, Saint John, N. B.

BEULAH YOUTH CAMP

The Beulah Youth Camp, under the direction of Rev. N. E. Trafton with Rev. Sheila Graham as evangelist, was outstanding in every respect. "Extraordinary" is a simple way of putting it.

There were 69 campers at the camp consisting of 43 girls and 26 boys. These campers came mainly from the Maritimes but others came from various parts of Canada and the United States, representing several denominational faiths.

The camp was blessed of God under the ministry of the evangelist, Rev. Sheila Graham. Her messages were a challenge to the campers, and night after night seekers made adjustments with God.

May God be praised for a wonderful camp.

NEW SOCIETY OFFICERS

The Seal Cove Young People's Society appointed the following officers at their annual business meeting:

President, Johnny Brown; Vice President, Marilyn Frost; Secretary Treasurer, Susan Wilson; Self-Denial Treasurer, Doreen French; Pianist, Doreen French; Highway Reporter, Susan Wilson.

RIVERSIDE CAMP POSTER CONTEST WINNERS

1st Prize—Miss Joanne Dunn, Houlton, Maine

2nd Prize—Misses Marilyn and Eileen Colwell, Barkers Point, New Brunswick.

The Promotional Committee wishes to thank the five judges and those who worked on the posters. Perhaps next year we can have more prizes and more winning posters.

VICTORY IN THE CAMP

Special Youth Services were held at Beulah Camp this year with Rev. N. E. Trafton as special speaker. These services were helpful to old and young alike.

These services, together with the Annual Youth Rally Saturday Afternoon did much to edify God's people.

The final service of Beulah Camp was climaxed with a high note of victory. A large number of seekers found victory in Christ at the close of the last evening service. Many of these were young people.

The scene was one of beauty and grandeur. God was near. His power worked in an unusual way. Many people exclaimed, "We haven't seen anything like this in a long time." May God be praised.

YOUTH LEADERS CONVENTION

We need the co-operation of every Reformed Baptist Pastor and Youth Leader in order to make this convention a success. Plans are being made to assist the local Y.P. Societies in every aspect of their youth program. Churches which are not represented will miss a great opportunity to receive instruction and challenge from qualified youth leaders.

Just as a suggestion: Why not be the first church to pay the way of the Pastor and Y.P. President to the convention?

Merle E. Smith.
