"Wars, with their injustice, oppression, tyranny, are upon us again. Who is going to take the responsibility for the awful bloodshed, destruction of human lives and waste of property? Some person or persons are to blame: but no one is willing to take the blame. All the heads of rulers of the nations say they want peace, and blame the others who are involved for the war . . . May God continue to have mercy on this poor old war-ridden, sin-cursed world, and let us pray that many may awake and call upon Him for mercy and salvation before it is too late" (From an editorial by Rev. H. S. Dow).

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

July 30, 1964.

The Editor,
King's Highway,
Yarmouth, N. S.

I feel I want to write a word of personal appreciation for the very fine leadership of Mrs. Leslie Black and her sister, Mary Harding in the conducting of the Vacation Bible School at Beulah Camp this summer.

I had a daughter attending the school this summer and it is indeed a privilege for her to have been in such a fine program of Christian education. The display of work and the closing exercises of the school reflect the efforts of Mrs. Black, Mary and all the workers who assisted them. Praise God for such dedicated young people.

You have a leader in children's work whom you can be well proud of. I am sure I express the sentiment of many others when I say "thank you" to her and her staff for the fine job done this summer.

Cordially yours,

Ralph Hobson.

Dear Brother Trafton,

Would you kindly place the following in the Highway for me. Thank you.

During the Alliance Session of 1964, the following members were appointed to the Home Mission Board; Rev. M. W. Bagley, Rev. G. A. Inman, Rev. S. W. Steeves, Joe MacDowell, Herbert McCrea, and Elmer Beal. As chairman of the Board we sense and feel a deep need of prayer and your faithful support as we face this responsibility for the coming year.

With the exception of two members, this will be an entirely new board, thus, we have many things to learn concerning Home Missions.

There was a large number of seekers on the last Sunday evening . . . A large number of young people were present and were always ready to take their part."

We are planning in the very near future to visit our Home Mission Churches and we trust by then we will be able to share with you more fully some of our specific needs.

Also, planning a couple of Home Mission Rallies, the first one sometime this fall with our Church at Beals Island, Maine.

Again, we feel to emphasis that, "Home Missions" are a must, if the other departments of our work are to survive.

So as the appeal is given again this year, will you kindly stand by us with your prayers and support as you have in the past.

Yours for "Home Missions"

Rev. S. W. Steeves.

ASK A QUESTION

"Give me the benefit of your convictions, if you have any. Keep your doubts to yourself; I have enough of my own".

This forthright appeal and confession of Germany's famed poet-philosopher, Goethe, may strike a responsive chord in many of meditative mind and searching soul.

Unanswered questions leave us perplexed; unsolved problems cause mental disturbance and spiritual frustration. Conversely, explanations and solutions bring us peace of mind and heart assurance.

It is our hope that the readers of the Highway will inquire concerning matters that may concern them and others, particularly those that are directly related to spiritual life and Christian living. We shall seek to answer such inquiries by direct state-
