Each year our children have a missionary project. During the past year a croupette was purchased for Bethesda Hospital. We are waiting for confirmation from Africa that one has been installed at the hospital.

In previous years we have sent money to Bethesda Hospital to purchase an incubator, and our first project was to help secure funds to build the ROSAMOND DOW MEMORIAL CHURCH in Rhodesia.

Three years ago a program was initiated "mile of pennies for Jesus". The response from all our people was tremendous and in two years we had the "mile of pennies" ($800).

When the program was launched, our children were promised that the pennies would be used in some project that would be an asset in reaching African children for God. In talking with Rev. Glendon Kierstead, I found his vision and mine were quite similar. Reading material in the hands of native boys and girls seemed most important - tracts, small books, short stories, reproduction of scriptures, etc.

Upon consultation with the Mission Board, it was agreed that an Electronic Scanner and a Gestetner should be purchased, to be installed at the Bible School, I believe, and it can be used to print religious reading material to be put in the hands of our native children and youth.

I have received word from Rev. Kierstead that these machines have been purchased and are now in operation. Praise the Lord! This new missionary endeavor needs our prayers.

The cost of the above mentioned machines was more than our "mile of pennies" Therefore we are launching a new project of a second "mile of pennies", which will be used to complete payment of the Gestetner and purchase supplies for the reproduction of some tracts and religious materials for our African children.

This is one of the greatest needs of Africa today. Children are learning to read and will read whatever is made available to them. Communists have recognized this great reading need and are sending their Godless literature to Africa in great quantities, we are told. It is essential that every one of our boys and girls have religious reading material, especially stories and tracts.

Each church is asked to elect a "mile of pennies" treasurer, and initiate some local promotional program to let children in your local churches know the importance of saving pennies to purchase the above mentioned materials. Money may be sent to Mrs. Leslie Black, 131 Phillips Street, Wollaston, Massachusetts, 02170, in either Canadian or American funds.

CHRISTMAS IN JULY

By popular request, we are again planning to have another "CHRISTMAS IN JULY" at Beulah Camp this year on Missionary Day. However, this year, we are asking that the gifts be put inside a plastic bag and tied with a colored ribbon instead of being wrapped as in previous years.

It has been suggested that all our gifts this year be small toys for the boys and very small dolls for the girls.

It would be much appreciated if every church would take part in this program and have a delegate bring your toys to Beulah to be part of our Camp Christmas.

Thanks very much for your cooperation.

shall be reaping later on as a result. Some visible results were realized also.

We feel to thank the Lord for each of these series of services. God has blessed and strengthened the Church through them. Our attendance in all departments is encouraging, Sunday School is about 200, our last prayer meeting there were 94 present. We say "Praise the Lord" and are encouraged to press the battle.

A Prosperous New Year to everyone.

Dear Highway Friends:—

A few lines from this part of our work is long overdue. We enjoy reading the reports from other places, but are inclined to neglect this ourselves.

We have just finished our second series of special services. The first with Rev. Willis Miller, November 14-December 5, 1965. The second with Rev. R. H. Nicholson and Cedric Landers, January 2-16, 1966. These meetings were different, but each accomplished much in the extending of the Kingdom of God. We greatly enjoyed Brother Miller's Bible teaching ministry and two of the Sunday evening services really broke up and we saw some gracious victory. The noon bible classes were much enjoyed and were well attended. Brother Miller is a great evangelist and a beloved brother in the Lord.

Our meetings with Brothers Nicholson and Landers were the best attended services that this Church has ever had. Their ministry in music, preaching, painting and drawing was greatly appreciated. Much good seed was sown and we believe there
