

WESLEYAN YOUTH CENTRAL NEW BRUNSWICK

A district youth rally was held at Barker's Point January 21, 1967. The afternoon workshop was directed by Lic. Wayne Bfiggs who was assisted by Bill Moore. Two large displays were exhibited. One was a display of audio-visual materials and ways to use them. The other was a display of books, magazines and program helps. A third was the exhibit of some of the materials provided by Wesleyan Youth and the Atlantic Conference.

There was a discussion in the workshop of WY programming at the local level under the following headings, "Who is to lead WY?" "How is WY to be lead?" "What materials are available to assist in conducting WY programs?"

A short business meeting followed the workshop. The District Executive for the coming year was elected. The officers are: Hugh McNight, President, Willow Anne Mitchell and Doreen Doherty, Assistants.

It was announced that the Executive has accepted an invitation from the Marysville Church to hold the Youth Rally there this year.

Conference Youth President Ross MacCallum presented the District with the need for rapid completion of repayment of money borrowed to pay for Rev. H. R. Ingersoll's trip to Africa two years ago.

The evening service was led by Ross MacCallum. Lic. Wayne Briggs preached a sermon which followed the theme of Youth Week "So Send I You". A special feature of the evening service was the singing of Lois and Danny Mullen. This was the first service where they were out singing on their own. We congratulate them on their fine singing.

YOUTH WEEK IN MONCTON

Rev. H. R. Ingersoll preached in Moncton during the Youth Week Service. Reports indicated that the spiritual level of the Moncton WY was deepened. Only one night passed when there was not a seeker at the altar.

DALHOUSIE

Lic. Wayne Briggs was in Dalhousie for Youth Meeting the weekend of Feb. 12.

SAINT JOHN

Saint John will again be host to a weekend Youth Retreat featuring a full day of fun, fellowship and worship at the Atlantic Bible Institute in Hampton on the weekend of Feb. 25-27. Rev. J. A. MacKenzie, pastor at Truro, will be the speaker in services held at Saint John on Friday night and on Saturday.

NOTICE TO LOCALS

In the districts that have held business meetings, (Southern Nova Scotia; Eastern New Brunswick; Central New Brunswick; Southwestern N. B. and Southern Maine) it has been voted to support a motion by the Conference executive to pay $12.50 per society plus $1.00 per frequently attending member to the Conference.

The Highway has no knowledge of any of this money being sent in to Miss Beth Cann as yet. It might save your society the embarrassment of an unpaid budget, if an attempt was made to pay most of this budget before Easter.

YOUTH CAMPS

BEULAH, RIVERSIDE, PENIEL

Do you remember those fun-packed Youth Camps you attended last Summer?

Well, we're having them again!

Come on back! We miss You!
and bring a friend. We like to meet new friends.

Everybody bring a buddy.
