

PASTORS & CHURCHES

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH
PULASKI, N. Y.

Dear Highway friends:

I just finished a meeting with Brother George DeLong, and want to express our appreciation for his fine ministry among us. Brother DeLong has a straight positive message that we all appreciated, and which was blessed of God. It was wonderful to work and fellowship with our Atlantic Conference people once again.

In Him,
Gerald F. MacKinnon.

Dear Sir:

I am writing to inform you of the very good meeting which Rev. George DeLong gave to us just recently, Mar. 31-April 9.

The meeting took place at the Church of the Nazarene, Bristol, Pennsylvania and was climaxed on the final Sunday evening with a victorious altar service in which eight (8) seekers found definite spiritual help. In all, thirteen, (13) either were saved, sanctified, reclaimed, or drawn nearer to their Lord.

The revival meeting was also of spiritual benefit for the entire church, for which we praise God. You are fortunate to have such a fine evangelist in your church.

Since Rev. DeLong, is a Reformed Baptist (now Wesleyan), I have thought that you may want to use this information.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely in His name,
Rev. David F. Hall.

Dear Highway Friends:

I would like to give a report of our Holiness Conference which was held in Gordonsville April 3-9th. The Pastors of our District participated in this effort with each man bringing a challenging message on Holiness. Our services were well attended, and the people emphasized how much spiritual help they had received. I would like to say, as pastor, we all received a great spiritual uplift. Last Sunday in our regular services, the Lord broke in upon us and in one service two people found the Lord as Saviour, another as Sanctifier, and others knelt at the altar to pray.

I was reminded again that when Holiness is preached, even the sinner gets hungry.

Yours in the Lord,
George A. Hopkins.
