—The Francis E. Harmer Mission Band of the United Church, Berwick, is holding a fancy sale at the parsonage on Friday evening, Dec. 11. Candy and refreshments will be sold during the evening.

—The matter of building a new church at Quispamsis came up at the meeting of the St. John Presbytery of the United Church held on Tuesday. It is expected that the building will be started next spring.

—The Imperial is running a special matinee for Warner Bros. big 8-reel comedy drama picture "Red Hot Tires" Saturday afternoon, starting at 3 o'clock and the admission will be a dime only for the children.

—The many friends of Mrs. J. M. Kline will regret to learn that she was taken suddenly ill on Thursday last, and has since been confined to her bed. Her physician is of the opinion that it will be some little time before she is able to be about again.

—There will be a meeting this (Thursday) evening, Dec. 3rd at 8 o'clock in the Methodist vestry to discuss matters pertaining to the moral welfare of the community. Rev. Thos. Marshall, secretary of the N. B. Temperance Alliance, will be the speaker.

—The Smith's Creek Branch of the Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Geo. Norden on Saturday Dec. 5, at 2.30 p.m. Roll call will be answered by Christmas quotations. Papers will be read by Mrs. W. J. King and Mrs. Campbell. Visitors welcome.

—Friday night, Dec. 4th, at 7.30 p.m., the Moncton ladies will bowl the Sussex ladies on the local alleys. This should be very interesting. All are welcome, come cheer our ladies along to victory. The school league, which has been formed, and for which Mr. E. H. Vickers has so cheerfully donated a trophy, will open Saturday morning at 9.30 a.m.

—The Newtown and Smith's Creek Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. D. D. Stockton, Saturday Dec. 5th, at 2 p.m. Miss Elizabeth Nutter, superintendent of the Women's Institute, and her assistant, Miss Estelle LeBlanc, will be present at this meeting and demonstrate the making of a paper dress form. All ladies in the community who are interested are cordially invited to attend.

—Mr. John Zurgable, of Gettysburg, Pa., and Philip Byron, of Boston, have returned home after a hunting trip spent together in the New Brunswick wilds, where they were successful in killing two moose. Mr. Zurgable took his moose home, it being the first moose ever brought to that city. He intends having it mounted life size. Mr. Byron was successful in filling his license.

—The cold wind on Sunday attended by strong north west winds and clear weather carried the most frigid November temperature since 1888. At 8 a.m. the temperature registered on local thermometers a little better than 2 above zero. The lowest November reading at the Government Observatory in St. John is 9 below zero in 1875. The weather moderated on Tuesday and has continued since then to get milder.

—Mrs. Harold Radcliffe was hostess at a most enjoyable bridge on Saturday evening last.

—Fred M. Sproul, of Hampton, has been appointed Registrar of Probate, in place of Ida B. Hill, removed from office.

—High Sheriff S. A. McLeod is still confined to his home through illness, and is not improving as rapidly as his friends would wish.

—Mr. and Mrs. Everett S. Smith, of O'Connell Avenue, are receiving sympathy in the loss of their two months' old boy, who passed away at an early hour on Wednesday morning, after a very brief illness.

—At a meeting of representatives of Saint John, Sussex and Moncton held here on Wednesday evening, a triple hockey schedule was arranged, three games in each place. The first game in the schedule will be staged on Moncton ice on December 28th between Sussex and Moncton.

—There will be a special sermon in Chalmers United Church on Sunday evening next, in honor of Scotland's Patron Saint, Saint Andrew. The old Scottish psalms will be sung and the service will be a very interesting one, particularly to those having Scotch blood in their veins. Rev. A. V. Morash will officiate. Everybody welcome.

—The Kennebecasis River is frozen over at Gondola Point with a fairly solid ice. From Bayswater to Millidgeville was thickly coated with ice on Wednesday, and the ferry steamer, Maggie Miller was obliged to cease operations and go into winter quarters. This is very early in the season for the Kennebecasis to be frozen over sufficiently to interfere with the running of the ferry.

—Our Personal Greeting Cards are meeting with much favour by all who have looked over the samples, and we have booked many orders. Let us have yours at once in order to be able to fill same without delay. A personal greeting card is a splendid Christmas remembrance, one that is greatly appreciated. Call at the Record business office and inspect samples. Special designs and the prices are right.

—The big game season which ended on Monday, November 30, was a most successful one for the hunters of this vicinity, a large number of moose and deer being brought out than has been reported for several years past. During the closing days of the season many hunters were in the big woods. On Tuesday Levi Crowe, Beverly Proctor and Ralph Proctor returned from the Goose Creek section and brought home with them the carcasses of two moose, which they had shot.

—Fred Strickland, who has been conducting special meetings in this province for the last few weeks, is now conducting a series of special meetings at Hatfield's Point. There will be three services there next Sunday and every night next week. Mr. Strickland has had great success in religious campaigns. Very successful religious meetings were held recently at Apohaqui. Several of all denominations received a great blessing. All are welcome to these meetings.

—There was a good attendance of Badminton Club members at the Armories on Saturday and the courts were occupied to capacity during the entire afternoon. Tea was served at the usual hour, the tea table being presided at by Mrs. O. P. King and Miss MacLean, and Miss Jean Connolly and Miss Pearl Gance assisted in the serving. After tea had been served, the tea members enjoyed a social hour at bridge.

—The Women's Institute held a very successful tea and fancy sale at Mrs. W. J. Devine's home on Friday afternoon from 3 to 6. The proceeds amounted to $30. Those in charge were: fancy work, Mrs. R. Morrison and Mrs. Henry Colpitts; tickets, Mrs. Robt. Brooks; Mrs. G. L. Wetmore and Mrs. Frank Kierstead poured tea. Others assisting were Mrs. J. M. Spear, Mrs. W. F. Lutz, Mrs. W. J. Devine, Mrs. Brand, St. John; Mrs. W. H. Kennedy and Mrs. W. C. Elliott.

—The Kings County Record extends congratulations to William J. Maynes, of St. John, in his appointment as Nova Scotia's Rhodes Scholar for 1926. There were twelve applicants for the scholarship, representing Saint Francis Xavier, Dalhousie, Kings, and Acadia Universities. Maynes has been long prominent in athletics and his many friends and admirers. He was editor-in-chief of the Saint Francis Xavier Nexus, a year book, last year, and was a member of Canada's Olympic team in 1924.

—Chalmers Church had a most successful canvass last week for the local and missionary funds of the church for the current year. Ten men were engaged in this work. There was a very general response, the people contributing willingly. Some $1800 was subscribed, with more to follow. This, with the addition of the treasurer's present balance and other amounts expected before the end of the church year in March, will enable the congregation to pay in full its missionary budget allocation of $1200. Following the announcement of this result at the morning service last Sunday a thanksgiving prayer was offered and the congregation sang the doxology.

RED

HOT TIRES

The SEASON'S SMILEAGE WINNER

Motor Cars, Motorcycles, Steam Engines—in a mad burst of speed!

"RED HOT TIRES" is a comedy drama with plenty of the flavor of the farce. The essential quality of any farce is "speed." It ought to follow, then, that this new photoplay with MONTE BLUE and PATSY RUTH MILLER will provide entertainment of exceptional quality. Certainly it has more 'speed' than anything which has been done in pictures in a long time.

The heroine's propensity for burning up the roads in her smart little roadster and the complications which ensue when she is wooed —and finally won—by the dashing hero who is desperately afraid of speed as the result of an auto smash-up is the backbone of the plot.

There are innumerable exhibitions of daring exploits performed with the aid of speeding autos and motorcycles and the big thrill comes in the form of a life-and-death race between a locomotive and a motorcycle.

DANGER!—You'll explode with laughs at "Red Hot Tires."

MON.-TUES.-WED., DEC. 7-8-9 — Richard Dix in "THE LUCKY DEVIL" Thrilling. You'll want to stand right up and cheer! Funny? You won't stop laughing for a month! Action? The author of the Wally Reid auto racing stories wrote it, and action is his first, last and middle name.
