SHEBA

Dec. 1—The friends in this place extend their sincere sympathy to Mrs. Maloney in her recent sad bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wright, Sussex, spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Boyd.

Wellington Boyd and Robert Curbishley are engaged in the wood with Charles Johnson.

Albert Keirstead has completed his threshing operations for the fall.

Mr. Herbert Eglington is engaged cooking for J. E. McAuley on Big Flats.

Wellington Boyd and Audrey Johnson were the week-end guests of Mrs. Mary Boyd.

Mrs. Mary Boyd and daughter Emma were Wednesday afternoon guests of Mrs. Charles Johnson.

Miss Daisy Perry spent the week-end at her home at Coyd's.

Elwell Perry is doing a rushing lumbering business on the Northeast Branch of Long Creek.

Mrs. Wm. Simpson, of Mountain Dale, passed through this place on Saturday en route to Jack Simpson's lumber camp, where her husband is working in the woods.

If you think business is poor, think of the hairpin maker.

PASSED AWAY

Samuel W. Coates

The death took place suddenly on Monday night, Nov. 23rd, of Samuel W. Coates, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Walter S. Stockton, of Cornhill. Mr. Coates was 79 years of age and although he had been in failing health for some time his passing was entirely unexpected. He was one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of the place. Mr. Coates leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, four sons and five daughters. The sons are William of Glenciffe, N. H., Samuel of Bridgewater, Me., Henry J. of Mannhurst, and Daniel of Cornhill. The five daughters are Mrs. Edith Chamberlain, of Woodsville, N. H., Mrs. Carl Gladden, Northampton, Mass., Mrs. Guy Humphrey, East Ryegate, Vt., Mrs. James E. Marr and Mrs. Walter T. Stockton, of Cornhill. The funeral was held on Wednesday, the services at the house and grave being conducted by Rev. Mr. Donville, of the United Church. Interment was made in the Methodist cemetery. The heartfelt sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones in their loss.

Thomas Quirk

Thomas Quirk, one of Ward's Creek oldest and most respected residents, passed away at his home on Tuesday, the 1st inst., after an illness of about two months. The deceased who was 82 years of age was one of Kings County's best known citizens and had many friends throughout the province.

He is survived by his wife, three sons and four daughters. The sons are James S., of Florida; Fred T., of Sydney, N. S.; William M., Smith's Creek, and daughters, Miss Lillian and Miss Florence, of Collina, Kings county, Mrs. J. G. McMackin, of Sussex; Mrs. Stephen O'Regan, White's Mountain.

The funeral was held from his late residence to St. Francis Xavier church on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, where High Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. W. P. Hannigan. Interment in Ward's Creek cemetery.

George Mallory

A lifelong resident of Hammondvale, in the person of George Mallory, passed away on Sunday, Nov. 29, after an illness of pneumonia of two weeks duration. The deceased, who was a prosperous farmer, was 70 years of age. He is survived by his wife, three sons, Cecil, Harland and Lee, all at home; and five daughters, Mrs. Chas. Sherwood, Hammondvale; Mrs. Garfield Lammon, St. John; Mrs. Burl Thorne, Jeffries Corner; Mrs. Charles Tays, Hillsdale; and Miss Laura, at home. The funeral, which was very largely attended, was held from his late residence on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A service was held in the church at Hammond, at which Capt. W. F. Parker officiated. Interment was made in the Hammond cemetery.
