

Local News

—It will soon be time to talk hockey.

—The evening express train for Saint John leaves here now at 6.25 instead of 7.15 as formerly.

—A key found on Peter street can be obtained by the owner by calling at the Record Office.

—The downpour of rain on Sunday night made the roads heavy for auto travelling on Thanksgiving day.

—A chicken supper will be served in Chalmers Church hall this Thursday by the ladies of that church.

—A successful bean supper and dance was held in the church hall at Watford on Monday evening.

—A meeting of the Hammond and Upham Agricultural Society was held in the hall at Hillsdale on Saturday afternoon last.

—The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will hold a pantry sale Saturday, Nov. 14th, in C. B. Spear's store from 3 to 5 p.m.

—A concert and basket social is to be held at Sussex Corner on Friday evening of this week. The proceeds will go toward the open air rink fund.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Davis, of Smith's Creek, are being congratulated on having their home brightened on Thursday, Nov. 5th, by the birth of a son—Donald Malcolm.

—Divine service on the Millstream Circuit on Sunday next as follows: Lower Millstream, 11 a.m.; Keirstead Mountain, 3 p.m.; Apohaqui, 7.30 p.m. Rev. W. J. Hamilton, pastor.

—The ladies of the Sussex Branch of the Women's Institute carried on a very successful sale of poppies on Saturday last. The appeal to wear a Veterans poppy met with a ready response and the emblem of "Flanders Fields" was everywhere in evidence.

—The dance held in the Pythian Castle on Monday evening, Thanksgiving night, was well attended. An enjoyable evening was spent, excellent music being furnished by the Pythian orchestra.

—Baptist appointments, Sunday next—Keirsteadville, 11 a.m.; Midland, 3 p.m.; Norton, 7.30. A Thanksgiving service will be held at Norton, also reception to new members. All are welcome. Rev. C. S. Young, pastor.

—Thanksgiving day was quietly observed in Sussex. In the morning a united service was held in the Baptist church at which the Rev. A. V. Morash, Rev. G. F. Dawson and Rev. D. J. MacPherson officiated, the collection going to the Protestant Orphanage.

—The anniversary concert broadcast from CNRA, Moncton, on Friday night was much enjoyed by the listeners-in. Among the real good numbers were two solos rendered by Harry Wallace, of Sussex, in his usual finished manner. The concert was one of the best yet heard from Moncton.

—Rev. Butland Russell, of Cambridge, will hold Presbyterian Divine service in Trinity Hall, Main street, Sussex, on Sunday next in the morning at 11 a.m., in the evening at 7 p.m. All welcome. Presbyterian Sunday school at 10 a.m. in Trinity hall.

—The British Post Office has issued a warning that all persons who desire to send Christmas presents to the Old Country should mail them long in advance of the holiday. The warning is for the purpose of avoiding delay to packages similar to that which occurred last year, owing to the great congestion in the mail.

—Personal Christmas cards express the spirit of Christmas friendly greetings and are much appreciated. A splendid line of samples is now on display at the Kings County Record Office, where orders will be taken. Drop around and look them over. The special designs are colorful, neat and attractive. Order now.

—The open season of 1925 for the legal shooting of partridge, closed on Tuesday, November 10th. Sportsmen all report very poor luck and say that the birds seen were few and far between. Whether partridge are being killed off by disease or not is a question at issue, but there is no doubt of their getting more scarce every season.

—The last meeting for 1925 of the New Brunswick Cheese Board was held on Wednesday of last week in Saint John when 413 boxes of cheese were disposed of at a good price. Twins sold for 23.4 a pound and trip-lets 23.9 cents a pound. This is a much higher price than was paid at the closing meeting last year when the price was 17 1/2 cents. The production for the year was considerably greater than in 1924 and much better prices obtained.

—Frederick Gleaner, Saturday: C. G. Matthews, of Sussex, assistant accountant of the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, leaves this evening for Paspébiac, Que., where he has been transferred to assume charge of the bank's branch office there. Last evening Mr. Matthews was the honor guest at a dance at the residence of Mrs. A. G. Turner, Waterloo Row, of the members of the caste of From Afar Off. During the evening he was presented with a gold pencil by S. C. Hurley, director of From Afar Off on behalf of the caste. The house was gallantly decorated with Japanese lanterns and potted plants for the occasion.

—The formal opening of the Badminton Club season will take place at the Armouries on Saturday afternoon next.

—Divine service will be conducted by Capt. W. F. Parker in the hall at Poodiac next Lord's Day at 2.30 p.m. All welcome.

—Take in the football game on Saturday—Sussex High vs. Moncton High. This game will be well worth seeing as the teams are very evenly matched.

—Divine service will be held at Ward's Creek on Sunday afternoon next at 2.30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. D. J. McPherson. Everybody welcome.

—The big game hunters have been enjoying good luck of late, and as a result of their prowess, several moose and deer have been brought in this week.

—Frank Gould evidently knows how to feed a pig to make it grow into heavy pork. Seven months ago he purchased a young pig from M. L. McCarthy, New Line Road, which he killed on Thursday last, the net weight of which when dressed was 40 1/2 pounds.

—The Imperial is putting on a special comedy for the children at their matinee Saturday afternoon, which is entitled "The Iron Mule." This will be in addition to the 8-reel feature "The Scarlet West" which will make a thundering week end matinee and the admission will be a dime only.

—At Apohaqui last week there was a meeting held under the auspices of the Women's Institute when ways and means were considered to the end that street lights may be provided for that village. The chief engineer of the N. B. Hydro Commission was present and addressed the meeting. Apohaqui is the first village to take action towards having hydro street lights installed.

—Percy Radcliffe has rented the Royal Arena Rink and the activities at that pleasure resort will be carried on under his direction during the coming winter. Under Percy's popular management the Royal Arena will without doubt grow in favor and receive a most generous patronage. Just what will be done in the hockey line has not yet been definitely decided on, but Sussex fans can rest assured that they will see some good hockey at the Royal Arena this winter.

—If enough subscribers can be procured Havelock will soon be added to the many places made happy by hydro. S. D. Weston, chief engineer of the New Brunswick Power Commission addressed a public meeting at Havelock last week and explained conditions necessary to obtain the installation of the hydro electric service. The people of Havelock and vicinity seem anxious to get the hydro and it looks as if there would not be much trouble in securing subscribers. The line will be taken in from Petticoat.

—Melanie Babineau, of Upper Abouggoggin, father of 13 children, was drowned Tuesday morning at Calhoun's Mills, Westmorland Co., while at work among logs which were being floated along the stream to be sawn. He was in the employ of A. T. White, contractor. Babineau got on a floating log and suddenly lost his balance, falling into the stream. He was wearing rubber boots at the time and it is said they hampered him in his efforts to make shore. He disappeared from sight once and then came to the top again, struggling towards shore, but his heavy clothing and the icy water proved too much for him and he finally disappeared after taking a few strokes. Mr. Babineau was about 45 years of age. Besides his children he is survived by his wife.

A contingent of nine musicians members of the Moncton Salvation Army brass band, visited Sussex on Thanksgiving Day, and assisted the local corps in services held on the street and in the Barracks. The good music rendered was much appreciated.

The Sussex School Cadet Corps has been re-organized with a membership of about forty, under the leadership of Sgt. Instructor Fred Ellison. The boys carry on drill at the Armouries on Wednesday and Friday afternoons, and shooting is practiced on the indoor rifle range. Uniforms will be issued in the near future.

Armistice Day was observed in the Sussex school, at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning by two minutes' silence, the scholars being massed in the Assembly Hall. The flag salutation was carried out and Miss Margaret Murray of Grade XI, recited "In Flanders Fields the Poppies Blow."

At a meeting of the members of Chalmers Church held on Wednesday evening, a resolution was adopted asking Rev. A. V. Morash to withdraw his resignation and remain as pastor.

IMPERIAL (To-Night)---Thurs.-Fri.-Sat. November 12, 13 and 14

SPECIAL MATINEE SATURDAY AFTERNOON AT 3 O'CLOCK

A THUNDERING BIG WEEK-END. MADE TO THRILL YOU

You will thrill to the battle cry as thousands of real Indians gallop over the plains—as frontiersmen whip to the saddle, gun in hand, clash in a furious charge to protect the ones they love.

It's big—BIG. As big as the heart of the land where it was filmed. And sweetest of all is the love story of man and maid and the race barrier that sprang between.

With ROBERT FRAZER AND CLARA BOW

"The Scarlet West"

Big battles when the west was made—thrilling scenes of frontier strife—hardships—but through it all the indomitable courage of our forefathers as they fight for love and glory!

The story of a savage's love and devotion for a beautiful white girl, and his heroic sacrifice when he finds that East and West can never meet!

8 REELS. 2 SHOWS—7.30 and 9.

MON., TUES., WED.

"THE HALF WAY GIRL"

BEFORE YOUR EYES!

A million dollar ship blown to bits—

A thousand panic stricken passengers rushing to safety—

A wild leopard let loose on a threatening mob.

In addition to the Picture "The Half Way Girl," which is 8 Reels, there will be shown a 2-Reel Tuxedo Comedy entitled "The Iron Mule."

EYES EXAMINED, Glasses Prescribed.

How many times in a day do people rub their eyes and say: "Gracious, I've had kind of a headache all afternoon," and then proceed to take a dose of something. They never think their eyes have anything to do with it.

If you have pains in the eyes, soreness top, back and side of head, headaches, eyes run water, words run together, etc., our PROPER FITTING GLASSES relieve these troubles.
