ALMA

Nov. 7—Sadness and disaster in swift succession has befallen the Jordan home and family. On the 30th ult Mrs. Jordan was buried after a long illness and on the 4th inst Mr. Jordan was taken to the Memorial hospital, Riverside, to be operated on for hernia and about noon next day the home and other buildings were burned to the ground with the loss of all their clothing, bedding and furniture. Elsie, who had been home some months from Campbellton hospital, nursing her mother was the heaviest loser, as a few days before she had been to Moncton and had laid in a supply of clothing etc., preparatory to returning next week to Campbellton to resume her training at the Memorial hospital. She had her trunk all packed and her own and father's money, about $100, in the trunk. The boys also lost what they had, it being in their clothes that were burned. There was no insurance on the house. Yesterday Mrs. G. O. Butland and Miss Lenora Martin solicited subscriptions for Elsie and got over $100 in cash, which they will present to her this evening.

The young men who went West last August on the harvest excursion, have all returned, D. A. McQuaid, Jr., being the last to arrive home.
