The Chances—A Thousand to One! And yet they battle against the flames of the burning ship—any moment the dynamite charge may go off, blowing them to atoms.

It's the thrill show of a lifetime—full of drama and action and excitement. See it! It's one of the best!

Shipwrecked — then battling a wild leopard for life! That's action. That's the kind of thrill to set your blood a'tingle —that's what it's full of—the sort of stuff adventure's made of —the sort of things you love to see!

BEFORE YOUR EYES!—

A million dollar ship blown to bits—

A thousand panic stricken passengers rushing to safety—

A wild leopard let loose on a threatening mob—

Action — thrills — excitement —in the kind of a show you love to see!

You've read about it—you've talked about it—how the million dollar ship was blown up for a movie thrill—now see it!

"The Freshman"

Owing to "The Freshman" playing in Yarmouth Monday and has to make connection with the Digby boat Saturday morning the Imperial is compelled to change this week-end matinee to Friday after school. As the Imperial is desirous that every boy and girl see this last showing they are making the admission price 10 CENTS ONLY. Barely covering expenses.

LADIES!

If you are one of the few that have not seen this Great Picture yet, here is your last chance, and we are cutting the admission price one-half for the matinee—25 CENTS ONLY.

REMEMBER—FRIDAY AT 3.45 instead of Saturday.

"THE FRESHMAN" is a community tonic. It has done more to make the people of Sussex happy the first three days of this week than perhaps any other general public secular thing. Such pictures, when done cleanly and without recourse to hokum or indelicacies invariably win the popular approval.

PRINCE VISITED "OXO" RANCH IN ARGENTINE

Rode in Round-up—Won Visitors' Race —Saw Vast Herds of Fine Cattle

One of the happiest and most carefree days which the Prince of Wales enjoyed during his tour of South America was spent on the great "Oxo" cattle ranch in the Argentine. He galloped about the ranch in a woolly gaucho saddle, saw the horses rounded up, watched a remarkable display of rough riding on unbroken horses, which was something like a circus, only more exciting, since the horses were free to plunge where they would, and it was the spectators' business to keep clear of their hoofs.

The gauchos, in their big frilled leather aprons and rough hide boots with big spurs, are very picturesque and romantic in appearance and are wonderful riders. Many of them have literally lived in the saddle from the age of seven or eight. In fact, little boys, hardly more than babies are seen everywhere riding around with confidence and skill.

Following some cowboy races, the Prince organized a visitors' race of ten starters and won it himself. He thoroughly enjoyed himself and was vastly impressed with the horses, as well as the magnificent herds of cattle which ranged the "Oxo" ranch. Thousands of cattle, chiefly Herefords and Shorthorns which have been constantly improved by the introduction of prize strains from the Old Country were to be seen fattening on the rich grazing land.

Harold—Some men are letting their hair grow these days.

Mabel—Are they?

Harold—Yes, they regard a haircut as effeminate.
