

Local News

—It is beginning to feel more like spring.

—Saturday next is May 1st—moving day.

—April showers bring forth May flowers.

—The next public holiday will be Victoria Day, May 24th. It falls on a Monday.

—Don't forget the pantry sale at Mr. C. B. Spear's store Saturday afternoon, May 1st.

—J. D. O'Connell, the "Kiddies' Friend" and picnic king, expects to be in Sussex early in July.

—Trinity Guild will meet this Thursday evening with Mrs. James Leake, Paradise Row.

—A successful pie social and entertainment was held in the hall at Mt. Middleton on Friday evening.

—St. John and Fredericton were visited by an electrical storm of considerable violence on Saturday. It did not reach this vicinity.

—In order to insure publication of change of ads, weekly, copy for same must be in our office not later than Tuesday at noon of each week.

—The regular monthly meeting of the W.M.S. of the Presbyterian church will meet on Tuesday, May 4th, at 3 p.m., at the home of Mrs. W. Clark Elliott.

—On and after July 1st next, the Dominion of Canada will go back to penny postage. Instead of the present 3 cent rate, a 2 cent stamp will be sufficient for the ordinary weight letter.

—Randall and James Armstrong, of Pennfield, Charlotte Co., and Otis Armstrong, of Saint John, were in Sussex on Friday attending the funeral of their brother, the late Fred Armstrong.

—George Fletcher's mill started cutting logs this week, in the lumber yard of the Wallace Manufacturing Co. A crew of about twenty men are engaged in the work. The cut is estimated at about a quarter of a million.

—"Madam Behave," a riot of mirth. Views of "The City of the Loyalists," and the 4th chapter of "The Green Archer" will be the Imperial's weekend program and at their Saturday matinee, starting at 3 o'clock.

—Rev. Henry Irvine, pastor of Central United Church, Moncton, conducted the services at Chalmers Church on Sunday. Both sermons delivered by this talented divine were much appreciated by large congregations.

—If you have anything that you want to sell, now that house-cleaning time is on, in used articles that you desire to replace with new, try a Busy Biz Ad. in the Record. It will bring you the desired results.

—Rev. A. V. Morash occupied the pulpit of the Central United Church, Moncton, at both services on Sunday last. In the morning he conducted the anniversary service of Prince Albert Lodge, I.O.O.F.

—Harvey B. Parlee, who was recently appointed manager of the United Farmers store in place of Murray Kelly, resigned, has been confined to his home for the past week through illness. His place in the store is being filled, pro tem, by Heber Sinnott.

—It looks good to see some of the boys, who have been working in the United States, returning home. Curry Geldart, Otty Geldart and Len Smith returned last week and will take up their residence here again, having accepted positions with the Wallace Manufacturing Company, Ltd.

—At a meeting of the Arnold Lake Fishing Club held at the office of J. H. McFadden, the old board of officers and committees were re-elected. It was decided to rebuild the club cot at Arnold Lake, that was wrecked last winter, caused by the weight of snow on the roof.

—Advertising is being more carefully and widely read every day. People are realizing more and more how advertising facilitates shopping and the wide-awake merchant gives just as much thought to his advertising as he does to any other feature of his business. Intelligent advertising backed by service will get the business.

—There was a fair attendance at the Chevrolet Demonstration, conducted by an expert from the factory, at the Sussex Garage, on Saturday evening. The admission was free but the management gave a door prize, a ten dollar gold piece, which was won by Mr. Daniels, of the Royal Bank staff, who held the lucky ticket, No. 13.

—Presbyterian church, Sussex, evening service at 7. The pastor, W. B. Macdonald, B.A., will conclude his series of sermons on "The Outlook of the Present Generation." Subject, "Adventure." Sunday school at 11. Bible Class conducted by the minister. For discussion, "Lessons of the Flood." All meetings in Trinity Church Hall Main Street.

—This is the time of the year when more damage can be done to lawns than can be repaired during the whole season, by people who carelessly trample across the lawns leaving footprints deep and muddy, that the householder finds it hard to fill up. The soil is easily broken and the grass roots destroyed. Take a minute longer and keep to the paths for the sake of future beauty.

—Owing to lack of space on page two, some of the "Busy Biz" ads. will be found on page 11.

It looks like very near the end of the marble season, now that the "kiddies" are indulging in baseball.

—The regular monthly meeting of Chalmers Auxiliary, W. M. S. will be held on Tuesday, May 4th, at 3 o'clock p. m.

—Mrs. F. G. Lansdown is entertaining the Thursday Afternoon Bridge Club today at the home of Mrs. J. T. Prescott.

—Rev. W. J. Hamilton's appointments for Saturday next are as follows: Lower Millstream, 11 a.m.; Collina, 3 p.m.; Apohaqui 7.30.

—The spring rush of auction sales is now on, and are being held daily as will be seen in our Busy Biz column, and the many posters in evidence.

—Attention is called to a notice of the Town Clerk, J. A. Freeze, on page 4 of this issue, regarding the time of expiration of the lease of the town of offices in the Opera House block.

—Quite a large quantity of lumber has been hauled this spring to the C.N.R. yards for shipment, and is being forwarded daily. It is estimated that about two and a half million feet was cut in this vicinity by A. M. Floyd, Dallas Carleton and King McFarlane, all of which is being shipped from here.

—The many friends of Oscar Adair, of Sussex Corner and vicinity, are pleased to have him among them again after an absence of several weeks in the St. John infirmary, where he underwent a serious operation. Mr. Adair had his leg amputated while in the infirmary and he speaks very highly of the care he received while there. He is improving rapidly since his return home.

—Patrons of the Sussex train will do well to bear in mind that on and after Monday next, May 3rd, this train will depart from Sussex at 5.45 a.m., instead of 6.40 as has been in vogue for the past several months. And also that on the return trip it leaves St. John one hour earlier, arriving here at 6.15 o'clock. The evening express from St. John that follows the Sussex train, will arrive about half an hour earlier.

—Charles W. Keiver, a former Penobscot, Kings Co. boy, is at present on a business and pleasure trip combined, leaving his home in Oakland, California, March 13th, travelling through Western Canada, Vancouver, Winnipeg, Ontario, where he is placing his own patent mattress, the Keva mattress; Montreal to Boston, where he is visiting his brother and sisters, after an absence of 27 years.

—The Provincial Government in an Order-in-Council has extended the open season for the killing of muskrats, until the middle of May. Formerly the open season closed on the last of April, but so far, due to the backward spring conditions, very few muskrats have been in evidence. This extension is only applicable, however, to the southern sections of the province, including the counties of Westmorland, Albert, Saint John, Kings, Queens, Sunbury, York and Charlotte.

—The Ladies' Aid of the United Baptist church met last week at the home of Mrs. John T. McVey, Norton, to sew and make clothing and arrange a box of the same to be sent to a missionary on one of the home mission fields for distribution among the needy. Mrs. McVey assisted by Mrs. C. S. Young, served afternoon tea. Those present were Mrs. W. W. Somerville, Mrs. Jennie Jones, Mrs. T. A. MacFarlane, Mrs. E. L. Perkins, Mrs. J. D. Bell, Mrs. D. Allen, Mrs. C. S. Young, Mrs. G. C. Brown and Mrs. G. Harold Perkins.

—A school on electric refrigeration was conducted during last week in the New Brunswick Power Company's building, St. John, by representatives of the Kelvinator Institute. This is the first school of its kind to be held in the Maritime Provinces, but they have been held in other parts of the country during the past twelve years. It is necessary to make 90 per cent in the examination to obtain a certificate. Mr. Clyde Colpitts, of the Wallace Manufacturing Co. Ltd., Sussex, attended the course and passed a successful examination.
