

'MADAM BEHAVE' IMPERIAL TONIGHT

THURS., FRI., SAT.—A COMEDY SCREAM, A RIOT OF MIRTH, A WHOLESOME, FARCICAL MELLANGE PACKED WITH CHUCKLES AND SMILES—ALSO "GREEN ARCHER."—MATINEE SATURDAY—ALSO SAINT JOHN, INSIDE OUT.

Julian Eltinge, the world's most famous woman impersonator and for twenty years past a reigning stage success, says he is delighted with his role in Al Christie's latest comedy production, "Madam Behave," in which he is featured with Ann Pennington, the celebrated Polles dancer. "I like this comedy," said Eltinge in a recent interview. "In fact, I revel in my role because it gets away from the endless gown display that I've carried on my back for years on the stage. You see, in the film, practically all the action takes place in the same day, and the comedy comes so thick and fast there's no time to stop and change clothes."

"What a relief! Once I'm in skirts and the plot is under way, the action never stops. I'm climbing trees, being wooed (when acting as the supposed missing woman witness) by Lionel Belmore and Jack Duffy, and at the same time trying to keep my identity from Ann Pennington while I'm in skirts. And, also, I'm doing my best to get out of my skirts and into my trousers so I can make love to her. That's how busy I am in the picture. It's great, and packed with laughs."

The comedy is fairly packed with laughs and it is no exaggeration to say that it is as enjoyable as "Charley's Aunt," or "Seven Days." The cast includes several well known screen comedians, including Lionel Belmore, David James, Tom Wilson and Stanhope Wheatcroft.

"The Green Archer"

In the fourth chapter of "The Green Archer," a Patheserial featuring Alene Ray and Walter Miller and showing Thurs., Fri., Sat. at the Imperial, the scene shifts from the picturesque Bellamy Castle to the squalor of Cold Harbor Smith's waterfront saloon, where the beautiful Valerie Howell walks into a trap arranged for her by Bellamy, who decides that it is time that she be put out of the way—even as Elaine Holding was, who disappeared eighteen years ago. Is Valerie, too, to be swallowed up into the unknown? What fate has Bellamy destined for her?

In addition to the above the Imperial will show a very interesting reel of "The Loyalty City"—Saint John.

Matinee Saturday at 3 o'clock. Two shows each night, 7.30 and 9.

BARN BURNS AT ELGIN, BUT THE NEIGHBORS SAVE HOME FROM FIRE

At Elgin last week a barn owned by Wallace J. Smith was burned to the ground and had it not been that the low summer kitchen adjoining the house and barn, which was torn down by a few men of the locality, who were trying to help save the property, the house would also have been burned. The property is tenanted by Hamilton Kyle and family. Mr. Kyle was away from home at the time. The household effects were all removed to the street and Mrs. Kyle and three children were taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Collier.

Two of the children were sick in bed, with severe colds, at the time of the fire. After the fire was well under control everything was taken back into the house and Mrs. Kyle and family returned to their home. Mr. Kyle, who had learned of the fire while engaged at a sugar camp at Gowan Mountain, hurried home.

ENJOYED HIS 84th BIRTHDAY

On April 15th Mr. Dennis Maher, of Hampton, celebrated his eighty-fourth birthday. Mr. Maher enjoyed the day with his family and in the evening a few friends and relatives gathered at his home and extended to him their best wishes. Although greatly surprised Mr. Maher greeted all with his usual cheery smile and made everyone welcome. Cards, gifts of gold and best wishes were received from friends and relatives in Canada and U.S.A.

During the evening dainty refreshments were served, of which the great attraction was the birthday cake. Mr. Maher has with his wife and family been a life long resident of Hampton with the exception of a few years he spent in Norton. He was an employee on the C.P.R., being superannuated several years ago, since that time living at his old home at Hampton.

Of a kind and genial manner, Mr. Maher has many friends here and elsewhere who extend to him their best wishes.

MRS. E. FAIRWEATHER DEAD AT SEATTLE

SUDDEN PASSING OF FORMER SUSSEX RESIDENT—HAD SON MEET WITH TRAGIC DEATH LAST SUMMER IN STEEL WORKS

Friends here will be greatly grieved to hear of the sudden passing of Mrs. Edith Fairweather, which occurred at her home in Seattle, Wash., on March 19th, after an illness of five days. Pneumonia was the cause of death. Mrs. Fairweather was well and favorably known here, having resided in Pitt street until the death of her husband, Edwin Fairweather, who passed away about 23 years ago. The deceased had been living in the west for the past 20 years with her daughter, Blanche and son Douglas. The son was killed in July last. He was a senior at the University of Washington and was working during his vacation in a steel manufacturing plant when he was accidentally killed. Mrs. Fairweather never fully recovered from the shock of the tragic death of her son. He was 29 years of age and unmarried. While in Sussex Mrs. Fairweather was a devoted member and worker in Trinity church, where she is still remembered very kindly.

Much sympathy is being expressed for her daughter, Miss Blanche Fairweather, who is a Y.W.C.A. nurse in Seattle.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE HAMPTON GREAT WAR MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of Hampton Great War Memorial Association was held on Monday evening at the Consolidated School, the President A. K. Mellick in the chair.

The reports of the Secretary Treasurer and convener of committees were read, showing that during the year progress had been made. The treasurer reported a balance on hand of $758.40.

Mrs. F. V. Wedderburn, convener of the Hall committee, read a very complete report of the work of this committee, plans had been received and the one that was deemed as necessary to meet the needs would cost in the vicinity of $15,000. This at the present time could not be considered so it was decided to try and erect a memorial on the ground belonging to the Association, which was left with a committee consisting of G. B. Hallett, Mrs. Wedderburn, Miss Turnbull, Mr. Hill and Mrs. Hallett.

The ground committee have been very active during the past year, as was shown by the report of C. T. Wetmore, but a great deal more is needed to make the field suitable for the boys to have a proper field to train in for their sports.

It was decided to hold a fair in July as has been the custom in past years. The election of officers resulted as follows:

President—R. A. March.
Vice-President—Mrs. W. H. Hill.
Sec'y-Treasurer—Mrs. Charles Forrester.

Additional directors—C. T. Wetmore, R. M. Hallett, Mrs. F. V. Wedderburn, F. S. Keirstead.

VETERAN BAGGAGE MASTER TO RETIRE

JAMES CHESTNUT, WHO HAS HELD THE POSITION OF BAGGAGE MASTER AT SUSSEX FOR 36 YEARS, RETIRES FROM C.N.R. SERVICE ON MAY 1st.

James Chestnut, the veteran baggage master who has so successfully held down that position in Sussex at the C.N.R. depot for the past thirty-six years, retires from duty on May 1st. He will be retired under the provisions of the Provident Fund. "Jim" as he is familiarly called by his host of friends is one of the best known and most popular officials of the C.N.R. on the Atlantic Division.

In taking his leave of the public office which he has held for such a long term it is doubtful if he leaves behind him a single enemy. Everybody was "Jim's" friend and "Jim" was the friend of everybody.

He always used his own head, but kept his eye on the regulations at the same time, and his service to the travelling public was such that it brought to him a large share of popularity.

He is widely and favorably known and was a prime favorite with commercial men on account of his jovial disposition. The name "Chestnut" has been associated with the baggage room at Sussex practically since the time of the opening of the old European and North American Railway as "Jim's" father, the late Charles Chestnut, whom "Jim" succeeded, held the job of baggage master for over a quarter of a century.

The retirement of this popular official will be learned of by the travelling public with regret, but everybody will wish "Jim" a happy and prosperous future, and trust he will enjoy life to the full. He has served the public well and faithfully and by doing so has earned the respect and esteem of all creeds and classes.

He proposes after retirement to take a trip across the continent, and will spend some time in Vancouver, B. C. He will be followed on his trip by the best wishes of his host of friends and admirers.
