Wallace Manufacturing Company, Limited
SUSSEX — — — — — N. B.EPITAPHICAL

Epitaphs are always interesting, if they are out of the eternal mortuary common place. The English paper which supplied one that was lately quoted has unearthed a couple of others that are worthy of all admiration. One of them is that of Captain Woolward, who for fifty years served the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, and who in the early eighties was commodore of that company's fleet. The tombstone erected to his memory at St. Lawrence's, Ramsgate, bears the following inscription:

This marks the wreck of Robert Woolward, who sailed the seas for fifty five years. When Resurrection gun fires the wreck will be raised by the Angelic Salvage Company, surveyed, and, if found worthy, be refitted and started on the voyage of Eternity.

Launched 15 April, 1826.
Sunk 30 August, 1903.

The other is the shortest epitaph on record. It was inscribed by two thrifty brothers, who wanted to avoid all unnecessary expense in the carving of letters on the tomb of Thomas Thorpe:

THORPE'S CORPSE.

Twenty-two Record of Performance certificates have been granted to Dual Purpose Shorthorn cows, according to Prof. Geo. E. Day, with a production ranging from 5,800 to 8,000 lbs. of milk and 214 to 373 lbs. butter fat.

THIS MONUMENT in Grey Granite, Polished Front and Back, same as design, from one to three inscriptions in raised letters, freight paid and set up in any part of the Province for $95.00.

If you have any other design in view from any other Catalogue, you might mail it to us, and our quotation on the same design will save you from 20 to 25 per cent.

SAINT JOHN, N. B.

PASSED AWAY

Mrs. Walter Friars.

Mrs. Walter Friars died very suddenly at the Frances Sproul Hospital on Saturday afternoon. Her unexpected passing came like a bolt from the blue, to relatives and friends, and caused most profound grief.

Mrs. Friars was a patient in the hospital where she had given birth to a son about a fortnight prior to her death. On Saturday afternoon she was about her room in apparently the best of health and in excellent spirits, anticipating a return to her home, where she intended going on Sunday. She was suddenly taken ill and although medical aid was at once summoned and every effort made to revive her, death came within an hour after she had been stricken.

Prior to marriage Mrs. Friars was Miss Pauline Erb, of Apohaqui. The deceased who was 24 years of age, was possessed of a most cheerful disposition, and was greatly beloved and esteemed by a host of friends and acquaintances. On Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Friars' death became known it cast a deep gloom over the entire town, and on all sides could be heard expressions of the deepest regret.

She leaves to mourn her husband and infant son, and parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Erb and Miss Evelyn Erb, of Apohaqui. The funeral, which was held from her late residence Lowell street on Tuesday afternoon was very largely attended. The store of the W. B. McKay Co., Ltd., in which the husband of the deceased is a valued employee, was closed during the time of the funeral.

An impressive service was held at the home, conducted by Rev. D. J. McPherson, assisted by Rev. A. V. Morash, Rev. Canon Shewen and Rev. William Hamilton.

The pall bearers were Otty Wilcox, Simon Friars, Gordon Keirstead, Oscar Friars, Frank Keirstead (Hampton) and Ralph Pearson.

A profusion of beautiful floral tributes were in evidence, among which were: Basket of roses, husband; spray, mother, father and sister; broken circle, Friars family; wreath, brothers Fred and Dick (Calgary); spray, Mr. Tom Friars and Mrs. Berry (Windsor, Ont.); spray, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Perry (Saint John); spray, Mr. and Mrs. Harley McArthur (Saint John); spray, Miss Harrison and Miss Ross; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Friars; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pearson; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Kay's staff; spray, Mineral Springs; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Friars; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wallace; spray, World Wide Guild; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Weeden Scribner; spray, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Erb; crescent, Knights of Pythias; spray, Fidelity Class (Sussex); bunch of roses, Onwego Class (Apohaqui) wreath, Apohaqui Union S. S.; basket of roses, Mrs. Pearl Keith, Miss Nell Veysey, Mrs. Gertrude Armstrong; wreath, Eddie Harris (Saint John); spray, Newton Keirstead (Fredericton); spray, Zena Anderson (Fredericton); spray, Agnes Stevens (Saint John); spray, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Brooks; wreath, Mrs. W. B. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McKay; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Reid; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Armour; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keirstead (Moncton); spray, Mr. and Mrs. Alton and Beverley; spray, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Keirstead; spray, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Erb and daughter (Nashua, N. H.)

Funeral of Fred Armstrong

The funeral of Fred Armstrong, who passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. B. Richardson, Watertown, Mass., on April 19th, and whose body was brought here for burial, took place from the parlors of the F. W. Wallace Funeral Home on Friday, the 23rd inst.

The service at the parlors was conducted by Rev. D. J. McPherson, the hymns sung being "Abide With Me" and "Rock of Ages." Interment was made in the family lot in Kirk Hill cemetery. A number of floral tributes were in evidence, among which were: Willow, from family; broken circle, brothers and sisters; cross, Mrs. Barch, Saint John; sprays, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Small, Mrs. Mary Barkin; carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Howard.

Andrew McFarlane

Andrew McFarlane, aged 30 years, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McFarlane, Urney, Kings county, on Tuesday, April 13th, after a short illness of pneumonia and heart trouble.

Deceased was a man of amiable disposition and was beloved and respected by all who knew him. He had been a successful lumberman for a number of years. He leaves to mourn, his parents, six sisters and three brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Wm. Proctor, Millbrook; Mrs. Melburne Buchanan, Rockville; Mrs. Edgar Armstrong, Jeffries Corner; Mrs. Elmer Buchanan, New Line Road, and Misses Katie and Nancy at home. James, of Urney, and Robert, at home, are brothers.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was held on Thursday, at 2 o'clock, at which Rev. Canon Shewen officiated. The hymns sung were "Rock of Ages" and "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." Interment took place at Sussex Corner cemetery.

Many beautiful floral offerings were in evidence, among which were: Broken circle, parents and brothers and sisters; crescent, Mr. and Mrs. Melburne Buchanan; crescent, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Buchanan; crescent, Mr. and Mrs. Sim Crawford; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McFarlane; spray, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. McFarlane and Mr. Robert McFarlane; cut flowers from little nephews, George and Clarence McFarlane.

The pallbearers were Wm. Proctor, Melburne Buchanan, Edgar Armstrong, John Anderson, Robert Anderson, Joe McFarlane.

Mrs. John Bogle

Mrs. John Bogle, of Hastings, aged 62 years, passed away on the 20th inst, after an illness of ten days with pneumonia.

ly attended, was held Friday afternoon. She was buried in the family lot in the United cemetery. In the absence of Dr. Davidson, the resident minister, Rev. Mr. Payzant, of Albert, conducted the services at the home. Her children were all at her bedside when the end came, except Miss Edith Bogle, who is receiving treatment at the County Hospital, St. John. She leaves to mourn, a loving husband, six daughters are four sons. The daughters are Mrs. J. W. Elliott, Hastings; Ellen, of Bathurst; Edith, St. John; Clara and Mabel, at home; the sons are Alfred and Charles, at Bass River, N. S.; George, in Alma; and Meredith, at home. There were many beautiful flower tributes. The deceased will be very much missed in her home and also in the village of Hastings, where she has always been a leader in church work.

Thomas A. Kelly

Thomas A. Kelly, 73, passed away at his home at Hammondvale on Friday, April 23rd, after an illness of about a week's duration. He was an old and greatly respected citizen in that community and will be greatly missed. He leaves to mourn, his wife, four daughters and four sons. The sons are Lorne S. Kelly and Murray T. Kelly, of Sussex; Gordon D. Kelly, of Hammondvale; and Charles T. Kelly, of Portland, Maine. The daughters are Mrs. James Myles, of Hammondvale; Miss M. H. Kelly and Miss Jean A. Kelly, of Lowell, Mass.; and Miss Ida B. Kelly, of Newton, Mass. The funeral, which was held on Monday, April 26, was very largely attended. Interment was made in Hammondvale cemetery. Rev. A. V. Morash officiated at the house and grave.

WEDDING BELLS

Ross-Cochrane

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cochrane, at Parrsboro, N. S., on the 19th inst, when their daughter Miss Georgie M. Cochrane was united in marriage to Frank Gordon Ross, of Alma, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. D. Little, of the United Baptist church, Parrsboro, N. S. The bride was very prettily attired in a dress of rose crepe du chene with pearls to match, and carried a bouquet of beautiful flowers. The bride received many beautiful presents, the gift of the groom being a pearl necklace with a diamond clasp, and a substantial check. Only a few of the bride's near relatives were present. After the ceremony a dainty lunch was served.

When the roads become good for auto travelling, the happy couple will visit Alma, where the groom spent many years. He will be heartily congratulated by his many friends on account of his faithful attendance at the churches, choirs and Sunday school and excellent behaviour. At present they will reside in Parrsboro, N. S.

Hurrah! Circus season is coming back—and all the married men can go and see a man make a woman jump through a hoop.

See This World Before the Next

Some time ago the Imperial contracted for a series of twelve Maritime Pictures, taken by the Dominion Government Photographers last summer.

The one selected for this week-end showing will be "The Loyalist City" (Saint John) inside out. This is just an extra filling as it were for our sandwiched programme, as we have already filled it with the 6-reel comedy riot "Madam Be-have" and the fourth chapter of the "Green Archer." Will you be able to digest it all?
