Dec. 15—The sale held at the parsonage on Friday evening proved a great success. The sum of $23.70 was realized.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Goddard are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby boy born Dec. 10th.

Marion Northrup has gone to Sussex to work for Christmas.

Our teacher, Miss Kennedy, spent the week end at her home in Sussex.

Mrs. Clara Goggin spent a few days last week with Mrs. C. R. Parlee.

Miss Mable Gauce spent last week with Helen Gauce.

Beth Northrup spent Sunday with Margaret Northrup.

Miss Olive Gauce was a guest on Wednesday of Della and Clara Parlee. Miss Madge Fenwick spent the week end at her home here.

Miss Annie Steen spent a few days with Helen Gauce.

Miss Gertrude Smith spent the week end at her home here.

"I can't quite understand," said Smith to his friend, "why you insist on calling your new house a bungalow."

"Well, very easily explained," was the reply. "In the first place the job was a bungle, and in the second, I still owe for it."

Irate Mistress—Gracious goodness, Williams! Do you call yourself a lady's maid?

Williams—Not at present, ma'am.

WEDDING BELLS

Smith Leiper

A wedding of much interest to friends in Kings County, N. B., was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heber C. Smith, Springbank, Alberta, on Saturday evening, Dec. 5th, at 8 o'clock, when Stella M. Leiper, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Leiper, formerly of Apohaqui, Kings County, but now residing with their daughter in Springbank, Alberta, and Raleigh F. Smith, were united in marriage by Rev. V. M. Gilbert. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. The bride looked very pretty as she entered the drawing room, leaning on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of golden brown satin, trimmed with gold lace, and carried a bouquet of ophelia roses and maiden hair fern. Margaret Folkins, niece of the bride, made a pretty little flower girl, dressed in pink velvet trimmed with white fur. After a buffet luncheon the happy couple left for their future home in Springbank, amid showers of rice and confetti.

Wheaton-Brown

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized on December 2nd, at 7 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Anna Brown, when her daughter Ida May, was united in marriage to Mr. Kenneth Wheaton, of Hampton, by Rev. W. P. Dunham. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Hilton Brown, was becomingly attired in a new blue satin dress, with hat to match. They were unattended. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served to immediate relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton will reside in Hampton.

PASSED AWAY

Mrs. Jennie Desmond

On Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, Mrs. Jennie Desmond, widow of Jeremiah Desmond, passed away, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Forrestell, after an illness of a few days. Mrs. Desmond, who was 63 years of age, was a lifelong resident of Hampton, and her many friends regret to hear of her sudden death. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Charles Forrestell, and three grandchildren, Berna, Joseph and Helen Forrestell, and one brother, James Kenney. The funeral was held on Saturday morning from her late residence to St. Alphonsus' Church, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. J. Brown of St. John. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery at Lower Norton. Among the floral tributes were a wreath from her three grandchildren, and a spray of cautions from the Women's Institute; and a large number of spiritual offerings. The pall bearers were George Kelly, Wm. Barnes, Thomas Conway, John Dinean, Archie Murdoch, Ernest Ryan.

Mrs. Julia McGinnis

Mrs. Julia McGinnis, a highly respected resident of Southfield, passed peacefully away, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Michael Cummings, on Dec. 3. She leaves to mourn, one son John, at home, and four daughters, Mrs. Michael Cummings, of Southfield; Mrs. Thomas Bagley, Norton; Mrs. Walter Purtil and Miss Mary McGinnis, of St. John; and two brothers Patrick O'Keefe, of California; and John, of Southfield; also twenty one grandchildren. The funeral took place Saturday. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father O'Brien, Norton.

George E. Mallory

A lifelong resident of Hammondvale in the person of George Mallory, passed peacefully away on Sunday, Nov. 29, after an illness of pneumonia of two weeks' duration. The deceased, who was a prosperous farmer, was 70 years of age. He is survived by his wife, three sons, Cecil, Harland and Lee, all at home; five daughters, Mrs. Chas. Sherwood, Hammondvale; Mrs. Garfield Lammon, St. John; Mrs. Burle Thorne, Jeffries Corner; Mrs. Charles Taves, Hillsdale; and Miss Lora, at home; also two sisters, Mrs. Milton Bull, Edmonton, Alberta; Mrs. Judson Bull, Oak Bluffs, Mass.; and two half-brothers, David H. Osbourne, Danville, N. H.; Joseph W. Osbourne, Hammondvale. The funeral, which was very largely attended, was held from his late residence on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. A service was held in the church at Hammond, at which Capt. W. F. Parker officiated. Interment was made in the Hammond cemetery. The pall bearers were Chas. Sherwood, Garfield Lammon, Burle Thorne, Chas. Taves, Fred Osbourne and Nelson Osbourne.

DESPOILING OF CHINA

Chas. H. Sherrill, in the American Review of Reviews, gives in tabular form a statement of the extent to which China has been robbed of her territory by different nations. The work of spoliation began with the opium war of 1842 as a result England took Hong Kong. This was followed by Russia adding a million square miles of northern China to Siberia in 1858-60; by England entering Tibet in 09; France taking over Cochinchina in 95; France and England taking further slices in 96; England adding a piece of China to Burma in 97; Germany annexing Kiaochow and Shantung in 98; Russia taking Port Arthur in the same year, and England seizing Wei Hei Wei as an equivalent; England extending a sphere of influence over the Yangtze valley and France responding by establishing a sphere for herself north of Tong King, while Japan took Formosa, Korea and South Manchuria as the spoils of war, first with China and then with Russia. In the light of these events it is scarcely surprising that a sentiment "China for the Chinese" has been aroused.

Maiden Aunt—And what brought you to town, Henry?

Henry—Oh, well, I've come to see the sights, and thought that I'd call on you first.
