TITUSVILLE

Aug. 23—The heavy frost on Thursday night last did much damage to the gardens and crops in this vicinity. Miss Pearl Northrup, Lakeside, was the guest of Mrs. R. E. Kay, Sunday. Mr. Wilfred Tays motored to Saint John on Sunday. Mrs. Fred W. Titus and Miss Margaret G. Titus spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. John F. Titus. Emery Titus was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Frank Reid, Southfield, on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carson and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Floyd have returned to Detroit after spending their vacations at their old homes here. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and son, Dr. Taylor, have returned to their home in U.S.A. after spending a short vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hanlin and other friends. Mrs. Taylor was formerly Miss Josephine Hanlin of Salina, where her girlhood days were spent. Miss Mary Titus, Barnesville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. David Mc-Allister. Other guests of Mr. and Mrs. McAllister on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Floyd and family of Barnesville. Mr. A. S. Campbell's condition remains much the same. Mr. and Mrs. James Jack have returned to their home in South Boston. While here they were guests of Mrs. Jack's niece, Mrs. Bradley Morrison, and Mr. Morrison. Mrs. Charlotte Morrison celebrated her 90th birthday on August 13. As has been her habit for the last number of years she spent the day with her niece, Mrs. Irvine Wilson. She is very active and bright and interested as much in the general topics of the day as one much younger in years. Her many friends wish her many more birthdays and her continued good health. Presbyterian services, Titusville Hall, Sunday evening, Aug. 29 at 8 o'clock, will be a special service of "Story and Song," entitled "The story of the Pink Rose." The story is fact and not fiction of a young girl rescued from the slums of New York and who became one of the best Christian workers known. It will be found interesting and entertaining and at the same time spiritual and helpful. Everybody is cordially invited to the service.

BELLEISLE STATION

Aug. 23—Church was largely attended Sunday afternoon and evening. Mr. Ernest Perkins sang very pleasingly at both services. Mrs. Bruce Small and family are spending their vacation at her old home. Mrs. W. A. Smith and Miss Margaret Tingley, of Sackville, are spending a few days guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Perkins, and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Hughes and family, and Mrs. E. Howe, were guests of Mrs. Bruce Small one day last week. Mr. Charlie McAfee and son are visiting relatives in this place. Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Knollin are the guests of relatives.

AVONMORE

August 24—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Peters, Saint John, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Armstrong one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Knollin and daughter Edna, Worcester, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Alberta Harmer and other relatives here. Mrs. Elizabeth Hurder, Salem, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jas. Howe. Master James Durnian of Belleisle Bay, spent the week end with Mrs. Alberta Harmer. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Howe were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Howe. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Knollin and daughter Edna, Master James Durnian and Miss Clara Harmer, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Marchbank, Poodiac. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murphy, Norton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Armstrong. James Lovett returned to Marysville on Thursday last. Hedley Schofield and sisters Clara and Edna, of Sussex, and Helen, of Boston, and Miss Robinson, Boston, were calling on friends here Tuesday.

HAMMONDVALE

Aug. 23—Rev. E. C. Budd held service here Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reid and daughters Erma and Verma, of Upham, were in this place Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Anderson, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Taylor, left on Saturday for her home in Saint John. Mrs. Martha Myles, and Miss Grace Myles, R.N., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Weeden Myles, Sussex. Mrs. Joseph Kadra and Miss Dora Alexander, who have been spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. C. Walter Alexander, left here Sunday for their home in Framingham, Mass. They were accompanied back by C. Walter Alexander and son Earl. Harry Crawford and Miss Ruth Charlton, of Big Salmon River, spent Sunday last in this place. Miss Wealthy Law returned here on Sunday to spend some time with Mrs. Thomas Kelly. Friends of Mr. B. F. Myles, of Moncton, were shocked to hear of his sudden death on Friday evening. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved wife and family, mother, brothers and sisters. A surprise party was held at the home of C. Walter Alexander on Friday evening for his son Earl, who was leaving for the United States. During the evening he was presented with a signet ring, by his friends.

ALMA

August 23—A touring party from Dorchester, Mass., consisting of Dr. Robert and Mrs. Foster, Dr. A. N. and Mrs. Foster and children Cynthia and Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. Wentworth, who are making a trip through the province were here a few days ago and were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Colpitts and Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Keirstead. As Alma was the original home of several of the party, it seemed good to get back to Canada again these beautiful summer months and again revisit the old home (now in ashes), the fields, the woods, the hills, the rivers and lakes, invested with memories of childhood days. Dr. T. K. Cleveland of Philadelphia, is visiting his parents, Councillor and Mrs. Cleveland. The doctor has been doing research work in chemistry during the last year. Mr. and Mrs. Haddow Shields and little daughter, of Sussex, were here during the first part of the week. They were accompanied by their nephew, Percy Shields, of Hartford, Conn. Rev. Wm. Pineo, now stationed at Parkdale, was here last Wednesday calling at the homes of those he knew forty years ago, when he was a student minister in the Baptist church here. He attended the prayer meeting that evening and there were only three in the congregation that remembered him. Dr. Rommel, Mrs. Rommel and children, of Havelock, spent the week end here with Mrs. S. Rommel, Miss Annie Rommel and family, of Portland, Maine, who have been the guests of Mrs. Hannah Kinzie for several weeks, returned home last week. W. Kinghorn, Chief Road Engineer C. W. McLatchy, district engineer, and J. W. Gaskin, were here last week looking over the road repairing done by the road supervisors of Alma parish. The infant child of David Parsons, of Moncton, was buried here Friday afternoon in the family lot in the United cemetery. Mr. J. F. Cowan, lic., conducted the services at the grave. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams, of Portland, Maine, were guests part of last week of Mr. and Mrs. K. Hoar. Mr. and Mrs. Williams came by auto and enjoyed the scenery and good roads enroute. The two masted schooner Franconia, of Parrsboro, is here loading with pulpwood shipped by L. Martin. Arnold Munson, Purdy Butland, Misses Reita Butland and Bessie Sinclair, motored to Moncton last Friday. They were on pleasure bent and enjoyed the day very much. Wm. Hanlon and Wm. Heuston recently returned from Atholville where they had been working in the lumber mills. Purdy Butland went to Buctouche yesterday to work in a saw mill. A. R. Wetmore, engineer of the Public Works Dept. was here last week arranging for the building of a new draw in the Salmon River Mouth Bridge. The work of building the new draw will be done under the superintendence of W. McGorman, Hopedwell Hill. Mr. and Mrs. G. Hatfield, Misses Evelyn and Bess Hatfield, and Master Gordon Hatfield, of Parrsboro, N. S., are spending a few days here. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Colpitts, Henry Fletcher and W. Colpitts of Pollet River, were here yesterday enjoying the cool breezes and spending some hours socially with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Karl C. Steeves, of Moncton, are here at the Alma House. Karl was formerly principal of the school here. He and his bride, for-
