PASSED AWAY

Bernard McKeiver

The death occurred last week, in Moncton, of Bernard McKeiver, who had been in business there for many years, and only retired about a year ago. Although Mr. McKeiver had not been in good health for a long time, his sudden death was rather unexpected.

He leaves two sons, William and Edward, of Moncton; three daughters, Miss Jennie, at home; Mrs. William McD. Campbell, of Sussex; and Mrs. Gordon Melville, of Montreal; and one brother in Boston. Mrs. McKeiver died a little over a year ago.

The funeral was held on Friday morning, May 28th, from his late residence, 204 Archibald Street.

Mrs. William Campbell, of Sussex, and Mr. E. B. Campbell, of St. John, left on Thursday evening to attend the funeral. Mr. Bernard and Miss Jean Campbell were already in Moncton when the death occurred.

Mrs. E. Caswell Vallis

After an illness of about two months Mrs. E. Caswell Vallis died at her home in New Jerusalem, Queens Co., on Saturday, May 29, 1926 and her death has brought great sorrow to a wide circle of friends. Mrs. Vallis was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Burgess. She was a graduate of Mt. Allison, and after completing her studies, she was teacher of household science in Sussex and Hampton schools until her marriage seven years ago. As pupil and teacher she was greatly beloved, and in her home town she was held in very high esteem. She was an active worker in the Methodist church at New Jerusalem.

Besides her husband and parents she is survived by one son, Alfred Edward. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon from her late residence. Following the private service in the home service was conducted in the United church. Rev. H. A. Shanklin conducted the services and interment was made in New Jerusalem cemetery.

Among the many beautiful floral tributes that had been received were the following: Broken circle, from the Ladies' Aid of the United Church; crescent, Mrs. J. M. Kee and family; wreaths, James Burgess and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. Dunn; pillow, J. Vallis; sprays, the United church Sunday school; Let Me Serve Club; Mrs. F. Gagey; Mrs. M. Smith, Miss E. Smith, Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Shanklin and daughter Evelyn; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Machum; Mrs. Allison, Miss Mary Allison, Mrs. Blair McLean, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Worrell, Mr. and Mrs. S. Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. R. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, Miss Hester Sleep, Mrs. Chas. Burgess, Miss Mary Short, Mr. and Mrs. D. Slipp, Miss J. Slipp, Mrs. A. B. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Evans.

WATERFORD

June 1—The weather for the past week has been favorable and the farmers are putting in their crops.

St. John's church was reopened Sunday, May 23rd, having been closed for the winter months, since the resignation of the Rector, Mr. Best, who went to England. The Rev. Mr. Nicholas, of Mansfield, R.I., has taken charge of this parish.

Miss Margaret Doherty, teacher at Mechanic; Miss Katherine Doherty, teacher at North River, and Miss Agnes Doherty, nurse-in-training at the Infirmary, Saint John, attended the Doherty-Fulton wedding on the 19th of May.

Mr. Richard Moore spent the holidays here with his brother, Mr. Robert Moore.

Mr. Brown, who was the student for the Presbyterian church a few years ago, spent some time with friends here this past week.

The young people of this place spent a very sociable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry DeForest on the 24th of May.

Miss Ethel Sullivan spent the week-end with Miss Bernardine Doherty a week ago.

Misses Kathrina and Margaret Doherty spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Doherty. Mrs. Andrew Armstrong, who has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. William Armstrong, Salisbury, has returned to her home.

Miss Sadie Crothers has gone to Sussex where she is working in the store of Morton and Crothers.

A number of the people of this place met at the home of Mrs. O. Sear, Cedar Camp, on Monday of this week. A most enjoyable evening was spent in games and other amusements. During the evening George Sear was presented a signet ring. George intends leaving for Sussex, where he has accepted a position with his brother, Roy Sear, barber. After a dainty luncheon served by the hostess, Mrs. Sear, all returned to their homes.

Miss Kathleen Moore entertained a few of her girl friends on Monday in honor of her birthday, and all report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Armstrong and children, Apohaqui, spent the holidays guest of Mrs. H. Buchanan.

Mr. Dickson, the inspector of schools, visited this school one day last week.

MT. MIDDLETON

June 1—Harry Hills, who is now employed in Toronto, is spending his vacation at his home here.
