

Local News

—The C. G. I. T. of the Baptist church will hold a pantry sale in the vestry Saturday, March 20th, starting at 3 o'clock.

—Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Willard Thorne on the arrival of a little daughter, born March 12th—Frances Irene.

—Prince Edward Temple Pythian Sisters will hold a pantry sale on Saturday afternoon, March 27th, in F. R. DeBoo's store, Broad street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Yeomans, Sussex Corner, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter, born March 9th—Mary Winnifred.

—The primary classes of the United Baptist Sabbath school will enjoy a sleigh drive on Saturday afternoon. The teams will leave the church at 2.30 o'clock.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Jeffries Corner Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Thos. Lison on Saturday, March 20th, at 2.30 o'clock p.m. Visitors welcome.

—Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hall announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Stella Beatrice, to Clifford W. Hicks, of Moncton. Marriage to take place at an early date.

—Rev. H. E. Thomas, D.D., of Sackville, editor of the United Churchman, will be the preacher in the Methodist United Church next Sunday morning and in Chalmers Church in the evening.

—Rev. A. F. Bate, rector of St. Ann's Parish Church, is to be the new chaplain of the Legislative Assembly, succeeding Rev. Dean Scovel Neales, who is in the West Indies on a trip for his health.

—Chalmers Church Guild entertained the Young Peoples Club of the Methodist United Church last Friday evening. There was a large gathering and a pleasant evening was spent with music, games and refreshments.

—The choir of the United Baptist church are rehearsing "The Crucifixion," by Stainer, under the direction of Mr. J. D. McKenna. This beautiful cantata will be rendered in the church on the evening of Good Friday.

—The Live Wire Taxis group of Havelock, held a minstrel show and pie social in the public hall at that place on Saturday evening. The proceeds which amounted to $66.00, are to be used for the baseball fund.

—The Kennebecasis Valley Woman's Institute will meet with Mrs. Medley Reid on Thursday afternoon, March 25, at 3 p.m. The roll call is to be answered by an early recollection. Each member is asked to bring something antique to this meeting.

—Rev. V. N. Purdy, B.D., financial agent of the Maritime Home for Girls, at Truro, N.S., after a successful canvass of the town, left last Friday for Sackville and other points in New Brunswick. While here he occupied the pulpit of four of the churches, and two in Petitcodiac.

—J. R. Sutherland, Assistant Dairy Superintendent, and J. A. Conrad, of Sussex, representing the Dairywomen United, left for Ottawa on Saturday to attend the coast-to-coast conference called by the Federal Department of Agriculture, to consider the question of uniformity of packages for export butter.

—The Kings College Players, who are touring the Maritime provinces, are presenting "You Never Can Tell," a comedy in three acts, contemplate visiting Sussex. A Halifax paper in a recent issue had the following regarding two members of the company, residents of this county: "A young dentist, Mr. Valentine, was played by Harry Dyer, art, of Sussex, N.B. It was a heavy part but Mr. Dyer handled it with exceptional skill and appeared to be perfectly at ease and caused much applause and laughter from the audience. F. J. Keble, of Hammond River, N.B., took the part of McComas, the family solicitor, and portrayed it with great dignity and skill."

—Word has been received from Moncton that the condition of James Black, C.N.R. locomotive engineer of that city, who was brushed off his engine while it was shunting in the Sussex yard on Wednesday last week, and tossed into a snowbank, is regarded as serious at the city hospital. The lower portion of his spine is crushed and he suffered other injuries revealed when an X-ray examination was made. Pneumonia has also developed as a result of the fracture of two ribs. Mr. Black, who for some time had had charge of the engine on the Sussex train, has many friends here, and all will learn with regret that his injuries were so serious.

—While riding home from his home in Cornhill recently to attend the Havelock Superior School, Carl Chapman met a cow moose and calf in the centre of the road, about a mile from Havelock. Thinking the moose would leave the trail at sight of the horse, he continued on his way, but the mother moose kept right on until young Chapman's horse became frightened and threw the lad and then dashed for home. The boy scrambled to his feet and ran to the nearest telephone to notify his father, Thomas Chapman, of the affair and in the meantime the horse arrived home apparently none the worse for its experience. Mr. Chapman, accompanied by Earle Thorne, immediately set out with a double team and soon encountered the moose with her calf, still occupying the road. They were forced to cut long poles and drive the animals into the woods before they could proceed.

—Trinity Guild will meet this Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. (Dr.) White.
