GAVE PLAY AT CONVENTION

Belfast, Maine.—Students from the William G. Crosby High School went to Portland on Thursday to give a presentation of "The Bishop's Candlesticks," a one-act play, by Norman McKennell, founded on Victor Hugo's "Les Misérables." The play was very cleverly done before the English section of the Maine teachers' convention which met in Portland three days the past week, and the stage was set in the Chestnut Street Community House. It was given under the direction of Principal Charles L. Smith of Crosby High, and the object was to show the make-up of a one-act play, its value to the student who takes part in it and what students of the secondary schools can do when they try. It is a very heavy play for students of high school age to attempt, but the Belfast boys and girls acquitted themselves in a most creditable manner. The cast: The Bishop, Ralph Anderson; the convict, Linwood Pattee; the Bishop's sister, Miss Grace Hatch; the maid, Thais Harding; the gendarme, Kenneth Twombly. The students enjoyed their trip to Portland, and the experience of performing before such an august body as the pedagogues of Maine is one which they will not soon forget. Ed. Note:—Ralph Anderson, who played "The Bishop," is a former resident of Sussex, son of Mrs. Catherine Bray, Cedar Avenue.

Hemorrhoids

That Shockingly Painful Affliction

There are few of us who have not suffered from this trouble, but little do we realize that in most cases it is due to our own neglect.

Medical authorities agree that Hemorrhoids (piles) could be largely avoided were one to assist nature by observing nature's laws.

Hemorrhoids are most frequently brought about as a result of constipation. Therefore, assist nature by assuring an easy passage of the waste matter, and this can best be done by the use of Nujol.

Nujol simply softens the waste matter, and thus permits regular, easy elimination, without any overtaxing of the intestinal muscles.

Nujol, the scientific internal lubricant, replaces the lack of nature's lubricant, and obviates the possibility of constipation.

Ask your druggist for Nujol today and remember—look for the name "Nujol" in red on both bottle, label and package.

IMPERIAL TO START

A SERIAL

IMPERIAL, SAINT JOHN, SAYS: "WE HAVE FINALLY SELECTED AS THE BEST CHAPTER PICTURE WE HAVE EVER SEEN IN OUR NINETEEN YEARS IN SAINT JOHN, THE PATHE SERIAL 'THE GREEN ARCHER'."

Pathe's newest chapterplay, "The Green Archer," featuring that popular family of serial stars, Aliene Ray and Walter Miller, has been booked for the Imperial Theatre, where the first episode will be shown Easter Monday.

It is an adaptation of Edgar Wallace's great mystery novel of the same title, and centres around the strange character of Abel Bellamy, a self-made man who crowns his career by building an exact replica of an English castle, and entrenching himself behind its great gray walls, safe, he thinks, from the various people storming his double-barred gates seeking vengeance.

But there is one who passes like magic through the barricade—to whom locks and bolts and barriers are as though they didn't exist. And that is the Green Archer. Some think him a ghost. Others with less imagination think him of flesh and blood. Old Bellamy laughs at the Green Archer—wifely his wicked old heart trembles. A flash of green in the night light, a ghoully white "ting" that answers for a face, an arrow drawn from a long bow—carrying a message of warning to some—carrying instant death to the Green Archer's enemies.

The Imperial has arranged a wonderful programme for Easter Week. The first half, Walter Pidgeon in the $50,000 Liberty prize story, "Mannequin"; reel of views of "In and Around Moncton"; and the start of the serial.

On the last half of Easter Week they will have "The Man on the Box" direct from the Imperial's, Saint John, showing. You know what to expect of this picture, because Syd Chaplin's first picture, "Charley's Aunt" broke all theatre attendance records for a picture in Sussex. Is that not so?

BLIND FROM BIRTH, EYES ARE OPENED BY SURGEON.

Huntington, W. Va.—Blind from birth, Howard Cook, nineteen, opened his eyes recently and observed the wonders of nature for the first time following an operation by Dr. C. M. Howes.

Previously the surgeon had given sight to two other members of the family, Fay and Mayme Cook, sisters and another blind sister, Cordie, now is undergoing treatment in the hope that she also may see.

All four were afflicted with cataracts at birth. Young Cook's first impression of vision, was that it seemed as though he had been behind a sheet which was suddenly swept away.

At a public dinner a certain bishop was generally patronized by a millionaire.

"I never go to church," the millionaire said. "Perhaps you've noticed that, bishop?"

"Yes, I have noticed it," said the bishop gravely.

"No doubt you wonder why I never go to church, don't you?" the millionaire pursued. "Well, I'll tell you why, bishop. There are so many hypocrites there."

"Oh, don't let that keep you away!" cried the bishop, smiling. "There is always room for one more, you know."
