THE STORE OF QUALITY

At Lunenburg, N. S., the schooner Arthur J. Balfour, Capt. Arthur Why, not arrived Monday from Mahone Bay with a tale of piracy on the high seas. While off Rum Row the schooner was boarded by a horde of modern pirates who came alongside in a ship disguised as a coastguard cutter. The crew was overpowered and 1,100 cases of Scotch whisky comprising half its cargo, was transferred to the cutter.

WEDDING BELLS

Hayes-Hall

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning, Feb. 10, at St. Francis Xavier Church, Sussex, when Miss Ella Blanche Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hall, Sussex Corner, was married to J. Urban Hayes son of James Hayes and the late Mrs. Hayes, of Jeffries Corner. Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Hannigan. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming, dressed in French grey satin carmuse with silver brocade trimmings, and hat to match. With this becoming costume she wore a coat with fur trimmings. She was attended by Miss Agatha Cathryn Dunn. The groomsmen were Joseph Dunn. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. The groom's gift to the bride was a check, to the bridesmaid a sterling silver rosary with cameo, to the groomsmen a set of white gold cuff links. Many beautiful gifts were received, testifying to the popularity of the bride and groom. They will reside at Jeffries Corner, where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

Colpitts-Parlee

A very pretty wedding took place at St. John's Methodist church, Medford, Mass., at 8 p.m., on Jan. 29, 1926, when Rev. Mr. Miller united in marriage Blanche Gertrude Parlee, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Parlee, Millstream, N. B., and John Colpitts, formerly of Parleeville, N. B. The double ring service was used and the couple were unattended. The bride's dress was of white satin trimmed with fur and white satin shoes and silk stockings, she wore a bridal veil. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion. After the ceremony they motored to the home of the groom's sister, where a reception was held, and left on the 10:30 train that night for New York. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Colpitts will reside in East Cambridge, Mass. The bride received many useful and costly gifts. The groom's gift to the bride was a silver grey plush coat. Mrs. Colpitts was a student nurse at McLean Hospital, Waverly, Mass.

PASSED AWAY

James W. Foster

On the 23rd of January, James W. Foster passed away at his home in Moosejaw, Sask., after a lingering illness. The late Mr. Foster, aged 73, a native of New Brunswick, was born at Collina, Kings Co. For many years he lived in Sussex, from which place he removed to Moose Jaw some twenty years ago. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. T. J. Hind, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Moose Jaw. The deceased is survived by his widow and three daughters, Mrs. O. M. Carmichael, Saskatoon; Mrs. M. A. McLeod, Moose Jaw; and Mrs. Bert Hibbard of Buttress, Sask.; also by one sister, Mrs. Hannah E. Gray, Belfast, Me.; and one brother, A. B. Foster, St. John.

D. W. Moffett

The death of Duvernott W. Moffett occurred at his home, Perry's Point, Kings Co., on Saturday, Feb. 6, after a brief illness. He leaves to mourn their sad loss, four daughters, Mrs. Weaver, of New Jersey; Miss Claire, Springfield, Mass.; Mrs. Robt. Appleby, Boston; and Vivian, at home; three sons, Leslie and Sterling, of Sussex; and Stanley, at home. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family. The funeral was held from his late residence on Monday, Feb. 8.

FUNERAL OF FREDERICK LISSON

The funeral of the late Frederick J. Lissou took place from his home, Roachville, on Thursday, Feb. 4, 1926, at one o'clock. The service was conducted by Rev. Canon Sheehan. The hymns sung were Rock of Ages, Jesus Lover of My Soul, and Abide With Me. The pall bearers were Thomas Baird, Harry Lissou, George Robinson, George Armstrong, Thos. Long and James Gray. The floral offerings were many and beautiful and included the following—Broken circle, wife and son; sheaf of wheat, mother, Mrs. Martha Lissou; crescent, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. B. Lissou; sprays, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lissou; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Armstrong; Mrs. Lizzie Wallace and Jean; Mrs. Mary Lissou; cross, Mrs. Matthew Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Robinson; pillow, Kennebecasis Women's Institute. Interment was made in Sussex Corner Cemetery.

G. S. Dodge

George Sylvester Dodge died suddenly at his home in St. John on Saturday afternoon and the word of his death was a great shock to his many friends. He was one of the oldest telegraphers in the city and had high standing in the Masonic fraternity. He was held in very high regard by all who knew him. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Allan Dodge, of Upham, Kings county, and is survived by one brother, Alfred, and two sisters, Misses Elizabeth and Charlotte Dodge, St. John. The passing of Mr. Dodge will be greatly mourned by members of the telegraph fraternity in the Maritime Provinces, by whom he was held in the highest esteem. He entered the service of the Western Union in 1867 and for many years had been engaged in the technical branch of that service. He retired on pension in 1924 on the completion of 56 years of active service with an enviable record for devotion to duty and efficiency. The funeral was held from his late residence to Fernhill cemetery, on Monday afternoon.

afternoon, Feb. 12th, having been postponed from the previous day on account of the snow storm and almost impassable conditions of the roads. Through the kindness of Mr. N. S. Loughery, who with his team of horses and sleigh conveyed a number from their homes to and from the place of meeting, quite a large number were able to attend. The president, Mrs. G. Harold Perkins presided and fifteen members answered to roll call with Helpful Ideas in the Home. The secretary, Mrs. G. C. Brown read the correspondence, relating to Institute work. Reports were received from the different committees, and a number of committees were appointed to arrange for and carry on the banquet that will be held in the Temperance Hall in March. The entertainment consisted of a contest carried on by Mrs. Elmer Myers, Mrs. S. N. Loughery winning first prize in the contest. During the afternoon music was furnished with Miss Gladys Burns and Miss Carrie Yerxa presiding at the piano. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Yerxa served afternoon tea, being assisted with Mrs. E. L. Perkins and Mrs. Harold Perkins, and a social time was enjoyed by all.
