GARNETT

Feb. 15—The recent snow storms have made a blockade, very few teams have passed through during the past week. Saturday and Sunday were very warm but today the storm struck and the roads are very heavy, necessitating snow shoes and various other means of accommodation.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnston, Loch Lomond, spent Sunday evening at the Porter home.

Our local trappers are making quite a catch this season, several wild cats have been captured.

Thomas Porter and Arthur Moore, who are working with T. Alexander & Sons, at Lower Garnett, spent Sunday at their homes here.

Mrs. Ida Jones and little daughter Grace, who are visiting at the Porter home, spent Tuesday afternoon last guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnston at Loch Lomond.

Mrs. J. C. Stewart and son Robert attended the funeral of her uncle, Edward Arthurs, of Silver Falls. Interment at Fernhill.

Divine service was held on Sunday evening last at the home of Mrs. Wm. Porter. Among those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Moore and sons Arthur and Alexander; Mrs. C. M. Forrester; Robert Stewart, Mrs. John Dempster and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnston, Harold Dempster, Holly Garnett and Miss Louise Garnett, Walter, Gordon and Ralph Watters, Misses Helen Watters and Ruby Hood, of Loch Lomond; Mrs.

Ida Jones and daughter Grace, of St. John.

A valentine party on the evening of the 15th inst was tendered Miss Grace Jones of St. John, at the Porter home, where she has been visiting for the past week. The evening was spent very pleasantly with games and amusements of various kinds. Music was furnished on the organ by Mrs. Ida Jones. The box containing valentines was opened and presented a variety of valentines that showed Cupid had been busy. A dainty luncheon was served by Miss Bessie Porter and the party broke up with good wishes for their little hostess.

What one has wished for in youth, in old age one has in abundance.—Goethe.
