

'MANNEQUIN', IMPERIAL'S EASTER ATTRACTION

WITH WALTER PIDGEON, OF ST. JOHN—ALSO A VERY INTERESTING REEL OF "IN AND AROUND MONCTON"—FIRST CHAPTER OF THE GREATEST OF ALL GRIPPING SERIALS "THE GREEN ARCHER."

The public has been looking forward to the Imperial's Easter programme for some time. For their feature picture they will have "Mannequin," Liberty Magazine $50,000 prize story, won by Fannie Hurst, the foremost "human author" in the country. Her story "Mannequin" was accepted against 10,000 manuscripts submitted in the Liberty magazine contest.

Walter Pidgeon, of St. John, and personally well known in Sussex, plays in "Mannequin."

Imperial, St. John, did a tremendous business with this picture, and hundreds were standing outside the theatre waiting to gain admittance to a showing.

Besides this magnificent Paramount picture they will have a very interesting reel of "In and around Moncton."

The Sussex public is very keen to see the first chapter of the serial the Imperial is starting, Easter Monday, "The Green Archer." The Imperial, St. John, says: Thousands are following "The Green Archer" and that it is the best chapter serial they have had in their nineteen years in St. John. Several Sussex people who see one or two chapters of this serial in St. John say it's a wonder.

With this programme there is no doubt that the Imperial will receive big patronage Easter Monday.

Special attention is called to the change in time of the starting of the Imperial's first show, which will start at 7 o'clock sharp. Only the feature "Mannequin" will be repeated at their second show starting at 9 o'clock. Usual prices prevail on all their attractions announced so far to September.

H. H. PARLEE MAY BE ATTORNEY GENERAL

(From Edmonton, Alta., Farmer)
Though the name of Mr. Justice W. L. Walsh is most prominently mentioned today in Edmonton newspapers as the probable appointee to the attorney generalship, members of the legislature who are in touch with the government say they do not believe Mr. Justice Walsh would accept.

The general consensus in the capital city seems to be that the next attorney general will be H. H. Parlee, prominent Edmonton lawyer, who was active in the framing of the Liquor Control Act, under which the province is operating liquor sales. Besides being very friendly to the administration, Mr. Parlee is familiar with the work, is a comparatively young man and it is understood is willing to take on the job.

Ed. note.—H. H. Parlee was a well known former resident of Sussex, who took up his residence in the West several years ago. Mr. Parlee is a brother of Mrs. W. J. King, Smiths Creek.

SUSSEX GIRL PROMINENT IN ATHLETICS AT DALHOUSIE

We note from our Halifax exchanges that Miss Alice Atherton, who is in her sophomore year at Dalhousie University, was leader of the Dalhousie Debating team, when they met Mount St. Bernard's College at Antigonish, and debated the following subject: "Resolved, that an Imperial Council, with Dominion representation, be established to have full control of Great Britain's foreign policy." Dalhousie argued the affirmative and were beaten by a narrow margin of points. To quote from the Halifax Chronicle "It was first announced that the victors had triumphed, but the mistake was discovered before all the audience had left the hall, and a conference including the judges and members of both teams decided that the local collegians had won."

The same paper notes that Dalhousie Co-eds won the Maritime Intercollegiate basketball championship, playing home and home games against Acadia, Mount Allison, and Kings, without losing a game, and that they also are champions of the Halifax City basketball league. Miss Alice Atherton's name appears as a regular forward on the lineup.

IN APPRECIATION

We wish to extend to the people of Sussex and vicinity our heartfelt thanks for the generous manner in which they responded to an appeal made to them on behalf of the patients of this institution for books and magazines. Several large boxes have already been received and we are informed more are being sent.

To us who have so little to do, a good book or magazine is always appreciated, and when supplied with such, many a beneficial hour which might otherwise have proven dreary, can be spent.

We appreciate your kindness very much, and again we thank you.

SERIOUS EARLY MORNING FIRE

RESIDENCE OF F. A. SCHOFIELD, MAIN STREET, WAS DESTROYED MONDAY MORNING WITH PART OF CONTENTS

The handsome residence of F. A. Schofield situated on Main Street, near Trinity Church, was totally destroyed by fire, with a portion of the household effects, at an early hour on Monday morning. The fire, which is supposed to have originated from a defective fuse, had complete possession of the upper flat before being discovered, and the inmates of the house had to make a hasty exit.

In response to an alarm from box 2 at 3.30 a.m., the firemen made a quick run, but the flames, which had been fanned by the heavy gale that was blowing, had gained such headway that it was out of the question to check the fire in the Schofield house, so the fire fighters directed their attention to keep the devouring elements from spreading to the residence owned by the Misses Upham, situated about thirty feet distant.

It was a hard fight for a while as the wind was blowing the flames toward the Upham building, but it happily changed its direction and thus helped out in lessening the danger.

The Schofield residence destroyed by fire was built for and occupied a number of years by the late Samuel Langstroth, dentist. It was a two and a half storey building, and one of the nicest of our many handsome residences. Most of the furniture on the ground floor was salvaged, but nothing was saved from up stairs.

George McKnight, who boarded with Mr. Schofield, had the misfortune to lose a valuable gold watch among other articles.

On the run to the fire No. 7 motor wagon plunged into a drain that had been cut across Main Street, near the Cheese and Butter Co.'s factory, with the result that a radiator was broken.

The members of the Fire Department were furnished with coffee and refreshments by the Misses Upham, for which they desire through the columns of the Record to return sincere thanks. It was a cold, blustery morning, and the thoughtfulness of the Misses Upham was greatly appreciated.

Mr. Schofield carried insurance on house and furniture amounting to $5,200.

SUDDEN PASSING OF MRS. WM. MARR, OF DETROIT, MICH., FORMERLY OF CORNHILL, N.B.

On Saturday, March 20th, Mr. Frank H. Rouse, of Cornhill, received a telegram that his oldest daughter, Eva Rouse Marr, had passed away suddenly, with pulmonary embolism, at the age of 30 years, which was a great shock to her many friends. She had been ill for some time with pneumonia but letters stated she was much improved. Her husband was laid up at the time with a broken leg.

The remains arrived at Anagance on Tuesday morning and were conveyed to the home of her father, from which a funeral was held at 2.30 p.m. which was one of the largest ever held in this place, and was conducted by Rev. Milton Addison, of Pettitodiac, who chose as his text 2 Cor. 5-8, Absent from the body, at home with the Lord. He stated that it was his first experience in his ministry that he baptised, married and conducted the funeral service of a person, also stating that this was the 23rd anniversary of the death of her mother.

The favorite hymns of the deceased were sung. Asleep in Jesus. Some Time We'll Understand; Will the Circle be Unbroken. Rock of Ages. The deceased is survived by a sorrowing husband, William Marr, who was unable to accompany the remains, two daughters, Shirley, three years old, and Ruth, six weeks old; also a father and step-mother, one sister, Mrs. Garth Marr, of Manchester; seven brothers, Arthur D. Frank H. Austin B. Herbert R. of Corn Hill; Irvine B. of Fredericton, Harley K. of Detroit, who accompanied the remains home; and Warren M. of Malden, Mass.; also three half brothers and four half sisters, besides a host of sorrowing relatives and friends.

Interment took place beside her mother, with six brothers acting as pall bearers. The floral tributes were very beautiful. Those attending the funeral from other places were Harley Rouse, Detroit; Irvine Rouse, Fredericton; Warren Rouse, Malden; Bliss Marr, Detroit; Harry Marr, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McLeod, Penobscot; Clarence Branscombe, Penobscot; Namaan Hughson, Pettitodiac; Mr. and Mrs. Niles Marr, Percy and Muriel Marr, Mr. and Mrs. Rathburn Rouse and daughter Hattie; Mrs. John Dunham and Albert Mallery, of Havelock.
