SUSSEX CORNER

August 2—The Women's Institute held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Hugh McElroy on Wednesday evening, July 28th. As usual the singing of O Canada and the W. I. creed, read by the president, opened the meeting. Twenty one members were present and the majority answered roll call by an original poem, causing much amusement, while the others paid a forfeit of five cents, thus adding to the treasury. The minutes of last meeting were read and also some correspondence from Miss Nutter, Fredrickton. The district W. I. invitation from Apohaqui was received and will be accepted with thanks. It was decided to enter a quilt for the fall fair.

Mrs. H. W. B. Smith gave a reading which was much enjoyed, as part of the programme. The National Anthem brought the meeting to a close after which a delightful social time was enjoyed by all. Refreshments
